

The New Orleans Bee

OFFICE 73 CHARTRES STREET.

NEW ORLEANS, SATURDAY MORNING, JANUARY 22, 1970.

43d Year—Vol. XLIII—Whole—14,963

THE NEW ORLEANS DAILY BEE
PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING, EXCEPT ON SUNDAY,
AT THE OFFICE OF THE PUBLISHER, 73 CHARTRES STREET,
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
TERMS: In Advance, $2.50 per Annum; In Advance, $1.00 per Quarter; In Advance, $0.25 per Week.
Single Copies, 10 Cents.
SUBSCRIPTIONS: In Advance, $2.50 per Annum; In Advance, $1.00 per Quarter; In Advance, $0.25 per Week.
Single Copies, 10 Cents.
Advertisements: By the Week, 10 Cents per Line; By the Month, 30 Cents per Line; By the Quarter, 80 Cents per Line; By the Year, $2.50 per Line.
Notices: By the Week, 10 Cents per Line; By the Month, 30 Cents per Line; By the Quarter, 80 Cents per Line; By the Year, $2.50 per Line.
Legal Notices: 50 Cents per Line per Week.
Obituary Notices: 10 Cents per Line per Week.
Solely Published by J. B. GONZALES, Jr.
Printed by J. B. GONZALES, Jr., at the Bee Press, 73 Chartres Street, New Orleans, La.

BY TELEGRAPH.

FROM WASHINGTON.
Congressional Proceedings.

The Virginia Bill Adopted.

The House of Representatives has adopted the Virginia bill for the relief of the Virginia railroads, which was reported by the Committee on Commerce and Finance last week.

Government Employees Free From Bureau Tax.

The House has passed a bill that exempts government employees from the payment of the new bureau tax that will be levied on all salaries and wages over $500 a year.

A Sixteenth Amendment Proposed.

The Senate has passed a bill that proposes the sixteenth amendment to the Constitution, which would give the federal government the power to tax incomes without apportioning them among the States.

Butler and Dawes in the Ring.

It is reported that the names of Butler and Dawes are being mentioned in connection with a proposed reorganization of the Virginia railroads.

Letter of Hon. Virgil Wiley.

Hon. Virgil Wiley, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Commerce and Finance, has written a letter to the President expressing his views on the Virginia bill.

FROM EUROPE.

The Great Eastern Reported Safe.

The Great Eastern steamer, which was reported to have been wrecked, is now reported to be safe.

Miscellaneous Intelligence.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.
The House has passed a bill that proposes the reorganization of the Virginia railroads.
The Senate has passed a bill that proposes the sixteenth amendment to the Constitution.
The President has signed the Virginia bill for the relief of the Virginia railroads.
The House has passed a bill that exempts government employees from the payment of the new bureau tax.
The Senate has passed a bill that proposes the sixteenth amendment to the Constitution.

LOUISIANA LEGISLATURE.

Friday, January 23, 1970.

SENATE—Last Day.

The Senate today will conclude its session for the year. It will consider several bills that have been referred to it by the House.

HOUSE—Last Day.

The House today will conclude its session for the year. It will consider several bills that have been referred to it by the Senate.

COMMITTEES.

The Senate Committee on Finance will report a bill for the relief of the Virginia railroads. The House Committee on Commerce and Finance will report a bill that exempts government employees from the payment of the new bureau tax.

DEBATES.

There will be several debates on bills that are of importance to the State. The most important of these is the bill that proposes the sixteenth amendment to the Constitution.

ADJOURNMENT.

The Legislature will adjourn on Friday, January 23, 1970.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

Ball of the New Orleans Club.
The New Orleans Club will give a ball on Friday, January 23, 1970. The ball will be given in the ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Ball of the New Orleans Club.
The New Orleans Club will give a ball on Friday, January 23, 1970. The ball will be given in the ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Ball of the New Orleans Club.
The New Orleans Club will give a ball on Friday, January 23, 1970. The ball will be given in the ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

MONETARY AND FINANCIAL.

Money Market.
The money market today is quiet. There is no change in the rate of discount of the Federal Reserve Bank of New Orleans.

Banking.
The banks of New Orleans are open today. There is no change in the rate of discount of the Federal Reserve Bank of New Orleans.

Exchange.
The exchange rate of the dollar against the gold standard is 1.35.

AMUSEMENTS.

St. Charles Theatre.
The St. Charles Theatre will give a performance of "The Great Eastern" on Friday, January 23, 1970.

St. Charles Theatre.
The St. Charles Theatre will give a performance of "The Great Eastern" on Friday, January 23, 1970.

THE VIRGINIA BILL.

The Virginia bill for the relief of the Virginia railroads, which was reported by the Committee on Commerce and Finance last week, has been adopted by the House of Representatives. The bill provides for the reorganization of the Virginia railroads and for the relief of the railroads from the payment of the new bureau tax that will be levied on all salaries and wages over $500 a year.

THE SIXTEENTH AMENDMENT.

The Senate has passed a bill that proposes the sixteenth amendment to the Constitution, which would give the federal government the power to tax incomes without apportioning them among the States. The bill was passed by a vote of 68 to 28.

THE BUREAU TAX.

The House has passed a bill that exempts government employees from the payment of the new bureau tax that will be levied on all salaries and wages over $500 a year. The bill was passed by a vote of 218 to 112.

THE GREAT EASTERN.

The Great Eastern steamer, which was reported to have been wrecked, is now reported to be safe. The steamer was wrecked on the coast of Virginia on January 15, 1970.

LOUISIANA LEGISLATURE.

Friday, January 23, 1970.

SENATE—Last Day.

The Senate today will conclude its session for the year. It will consider several bills that have been referred to it by the House.

HOUSE—Last Day.

The House today will conclude its session for the year. It will consider several bills that have been referred to it by the Senate.

THE VIRGINIA BILL.

The Virginia bill for the relief of the Virginia railroads, which was reported by the Committee on Commerce and Finance last week, has been adopted by the House of Representatives. The bill provides for the reorganization of the Virginia railroads and for the relief of the railroads from the payment of the new bureau tax that will be levied on all salaries and wages over $500 a year.

THE SIXTEENTH AMENDMENT.

The Senate has passed a bill that proposes the sixteenth amendment to the Constitution, which would give the federal government the power to tax incomes without apportioning them among the States. The bill was passed by a vote of 68 to 28.

THE BUREAU TAX.

The House has passed a bill that exempts government employees from the payment of the new bureau tax that will be levied on all salaries and wages over $500 a year. The bill was passed by a vote of 218 to 112.

THE GREAT EASTERN.

The Great Eastern steamer, which was reported to have been wrecked, is now reported to be safe. The steamer was wrecked on the coast of Virginia on January 15, 1970.

LOUISIANA LEGISLATURE.

Friday, January 23, 1970.

SENATE—Last Day.

The Senate today will conclude its session for the year. It will consider several bills that have been referred to it by the House.

HOUSE—Last Day.

The House today will conclude its session for the year. It will consider several bills that have been referred to it by the Senate.

THE VIRGINIA BILL.

The Virginia bill for the relief of the Virginia railroads, which was reported by the Committee on Commerce and Finance last week, has been adopted by the House of Representatives. The bill provides for the reorganization of the Virginia railroads and for the relief of the railroads from the payment of the new bureau tax that will be levied on all salaries and wages over $500 a year.

THE SIXTEENTH AMENDMENT.

The Senate has passed a bill that proposes the sixteenth amendment to the Constitution, which would give the federal government the power to tax incomes without apportioning them among the States. The bill was passed by a vote of 68 to 28.

THE BUREAU TAX.

The House has passed a bill that exempts government employees from the payment of the new bureau tax that will be levied on all salaries and wages over $500 a year. The bill was passed by a vote of 218 to 112.

THE GREAT EASTERN.

The Great Eastern steamer, which was reported to have been wrecked, is now reported to be safe. The steamer was wrecked on the coast of Virginia on January 15, 1970.

LOUISIANA LEGISLATURE.

Friday, January 23, 1970.

SENATE—Last Day.

The Senate today will conclude its session for the year. It will consider several bills that have been referred to it by the House.

HOUSE—Last Day.

The House today will conclude its session for the year. It will consider several bills that have been referred to it by the Senate.

THE VIRGINIA BILL.

The Virginia bill for the relief of the Virginia railroads, which was reported by the Committee on Commerce and Finance last week, has been adopted by the House of Representatives. The bill provides for the reorganization of the Virginia railroads and for the relief of the railroads from the payment of the new bureau tax that will be levied on all salaries and wages over $500 a year.

THE SIXTEENTH AMENDMENT.

The Senate has passed a bill that proposes the sixteenth amendment to the Constitution, which would give the federal government the power to tax incomes without apportioning them among the States. The bill was passed by a vote of 68 to 28.

THE BUREAU TAX.

The House has passed a bill that exempts government employees from the payment of the new bureau tax that will be levied on all salaries and wages over $500 a year. The bill was passed by a vote of 218 to 112.

THE GREAT EASTERN.

The Great Eastern steamer, which was reported to have been wrecked, is now reported to be safe. The steamer was wrecked on the coast of Virginia on January 15, 1970.

LOUISIANA LEGISLATURE.

Friday, January 23, 1970.

SENATE—Last Day.

The Senate today will conclude its session for the year. It will consider several bills that have been referred to it by the House.

HOUSE—Last Day.

The House today will conclude its session for the year. It will consider several bills that have been referred to it by the Senate.