Description

This is Manila Map showing LRT, MRT lines including icons of popular tourist destinations (such as Rizal Park, Intramuros or Ortigas). Distributed in PDF, suitable for printouts.

This transportation map shows all major transit links in Manila. It covers MRT (Manila Metro Rail Transit) system from south end station Taft going north through Magallanes and Ayala (city centre), Buendia. Then crossing river Pasig towards stations Guadalupe, Boni, Shaw Boulevard Ortigas Santolan Cubao Kamuning, Quezon and final station North.

Many sightseeing and tourist attractions in Manila are on the track of LRT1 (Light Rail Transit). Going from south you can start on the bazaar of Baclaran and nearby Edsa Pasay station, going towards city centre through Libertad, Gil Puyat and Vito Cruz. Then you'll be approaching Malate (Quirino Avenue and Pedro Gil), entering old Manila - United Stations Avenue and Central and Carriedo stations. The public transport will then take you to Doroteo Jose, Bambang, Tayuman and Blumentritt. Finally you will find yourselves in Quezon on stations Abad Santos, R. Papa, 5th Avenue and Monumento.

The third line of Manila public transport network is LRT2. It goes eastwards from the city centre, starting at Recto and Legarda going towards Pureza, V.Mapa J.Ruiz, Gilmore and Belmonte. From the bus terminal and LRT station at Cubao continues to Anonas, Katipunan and Santolan.

It is updated revision 1.1 containing latest LRT, MRT network development as of March 2011.
