PENMANSHIP, PRACTICAL & ORNAMENTAL, taught at Dalbon's writing academy, at the corner of Canal street and Exchange place. The extensive patronage which they have had of teaching young ladies and gentlemen from parts of the United States, and the increasing application for instructions in the science, as well as the practice of writing, hasinduced them to establish permanent academies in the cities of New Orleans and Mobile, where it is their intention to afford greater facilities for the acquisition of penmanship, than are afforded by any other institution in the country. Persons entering one of them, have the privilege of attending either of the others, without extra charge. The ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to call. Specimens of rapid improvement, given by persons from 8 to 50 years of age, who have received lessons in this city, may be seen at any hour of the day.

Ladies and taught a delicate and rapidly epistolary style also, various styles of Ornamental Writing suited to Albums, Notes of Compliment, &c.

Gentlemen are taught a free, rapid and business hand writing, calculated to facilitate business transactions, by dispensing with the delay incident to decyphering the hieroglyphical scrawl of most men of business, and imparting to the clerk a style at once rapid and elegant.

The hours of attendance are so arranged as to suit the convenience of each pupil, and for the accommodation of those whose business does not admit of their taking lessons during the day, a night class, beginning at 7½ o'clock.

The number of lessons is not limited, but every person who enters is desired to remain until he writes sufficiently well to do a world of business. This is the interest of both teacher and pupil.

A liberal deduction in charge made to families and to classes formed in any part of the city.

Ladies and gentlemen, if they prefer it, can receive lessons at their own residences. Ornamental writing executed with elegance.

Diplomas filled and cards and complimentary notes executed in the most tasteful manner.

☞ Dalbon's "Secrets of Penmanship," particularly designed for private learners and schools, and calculated for persons of all ages, imparting both ease and freedom not attained by any other method, for sale here.

THE subscriber has the honor to inform the public that he has opened a school for Boys, in which he will teach reading, writing, and English grammar, upon the Lancasterian system, and also the French language, upon the Robertsonian system, which is now taught in the Lycée Louisianais, and in the principal schools in the State of Louisiana, and as being decidedly the best in the country. Persons entering one of these schools will have the privilege of attending either of the others, without extra charge. The ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to call. Specimens of rapid improvement, given by persons from 8 to 50 years of age, who have received lessons in this city, may be seen at any hour of the day.

The professor will apply the same abreviated method of instruction, according to the intelligence of pupils, to writing, orthography, arithmetic, geography, algebra, linear drawing, mensuration, book-keeping and accounts of all kinds.

DANCING ACADEMY.

NEW METHOD.

J DEVOTI, late Professor for 30 years Professor in the Convent of the Sacred Heart, and in the Jefferson and Eaton House Colleges, has the honor to inform the ladies and gentlemen of New Orleans that he has opened his course of lessons at madam Lefoy's, no. 80 Royal street, between Conti and Bienville.

He will teach elegance of gait, the most modern steps, waltzing, the figures of the newest quadrilles, &c. &c.

Three lessons will be given per week—at 4 o'clock P.M. for the ladies, and at 7 o'clock in the evening for gentlemen.

The price will be $8 per month, payable in advance.

Private lessons will be given at the rate of $12 for twelve lessons.

He hopes that all who appreciate this branch of a finished education will continue him their patronage.

Every month, in order to ascertain the progress of the young ladies, a ball will be given in presence of the parents, at the academy.
