

Zera (1995-2012); she was an American akita who lived 17 years , she lived more than expected usually big dogs doesn't live more than 13 years . she was a very nice dog it used to live inside the house and the last 1 of her life she started to loose weight and the last month it couldn't walk after that she died in the natural way