THE NORTHERN MAIL came through yesterday with the latest dates.

MEXICO.

A MONTH'S LATER NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF THE ORIZABA.

The steamship Orizaba arrived yesterday morning from Vera Cruz, with dates from that city to the 22d, and from the city of Mexico to the 20th instant, inclusive. We are in receipt of our files from both places, and of two interesting letters from our attentive correspondent. Among the items of intelligence are the important news of the rupture of diplomatic relations between the United States and Mexico, the expulsion of a new Mexican Minister to Washington, the proposed departure of SANTA ANNA, &c. The communications of our correspondent contain all the news to be found in the papers, and a vast deal more which they dare not publish. We therefore invite particular attention to these letters:

MEXICO, July 5th, 1855.

Matters recently have calmed down considerably to what they have not improved. The revolut is appears to proceed with unusual sluggishness, and there is but little news stirring. What there is however, you shall have. In the department of Mexico, the insurgents have concentrated themselves at Tamascaltepec, where, it is rumored, the ex-President Tornel has been defeated. It is said too, that one Zenadio, the military commandant of the place, has disappeared, and is supposed to have been shot by the insurgents. This intelligence lacks confirmation. It is certain, nevertheless, that the Governor and Commandant-General Pelon, has left Toluca to put himself at the head of the troops sent to combat the rebels at Tamascaltepec. We are now told that probably by the departure of Salas the insurgents attacked and captured Toluca. Last evening three couriers returned to Mexico in a very ill-plastered condition.

There is little of interest from Michoacan. All is peaceful upon the border between the Government and the insurgent chiefs, Degollado, Pueblo and the rest are at a stand. They have repaired to Michoacan to rejoin Comonfort, who, with a considerable force, is in the neighborhood of Morelia. The news of the capture of that town has been severely denied, but has yet to be proved. It continues to be reported that Woll having got Matamoras with a view to route Monterey, has sent his men and camp away, routed by the revolutionary forces. It continues to be said that Woll is nearly and has been cut pushed to him in all haste.

It is perceived that the recent history of the revolution is limited to mere rumor. The intrigues at the National Palace are nearly at this time more to be seen than the prizes of the war. The stupid, imbecile and dilatory Ministry is daily increasing the unpopularity of Santa Anna, who, with extraordinary vigor, is said to be at the head of a large army and has been cut pushed to him in all haste.

It is perceived that Messrs. Bonilla and Co. are sending in all haste to join the band of insurrection. It is now manifested, however, that light is beginning to irradiate the mind of the President, and that Bonilla and Co. will be ordered to return to Tabasco. He is said to be already accepting the embassy to Rome, and the other the old post. So much for it.

The newest project on the tapis is the following: Santa Anna has by some means got the State Council, and submitted to their notice questions, viz: 1st. Is it time to constitute the nation? 2d. To whom does it appertain to draw up the basis of a new organization? 3d. What form of Government shall be established? The Council replied, 1st. That the time was favorable to the Government; 2d. That the Executive is vested with the requisite power for the basis of the organization; 3d. That the form of government shall be a Republican, representative one. These views are entirely opposed to those of Santa Anna, but the latter will swallow red re publicanism rather than absolutism.

It is evident that the Constitution will be promulgated with the title of a Bill, and will be framed in accordance with the organic basis. However faulty it may be it will be preferable to the anarchy and despotism under which the people are now groaning. Gold is daily and hourly rising, and the Ca ital is filling daily more Santa Anna. By the way, it must be said that on the adoption of the Constitution, Santa Anna will surrender himself to the Presidency, and will not return to his hacienda at Encero; when or he will return to Turbaco, and there remain, unless about to return to Mexico, will exercise the functions of his office.

The cowardly of the Republic's constitution has come to a close. The President who succeeded the State Council, and denounced at that body's consent before, now declares that the people do not require any, and that the Council has promulgated certain illiberal principles and ideas. It is rumored that the new administration Council is in complete disgrace, and that a member of the department will be exiled. This would not surprise me in the least. Santa Anna's potent policy has been to consider those who have served him. His restless changes of views in the work of the mad boy, who, indirectly and by discover and well timed flattery, usually escaped in one form or another, and on trembling him to modesty has planned to suit their own ends, is more obedient than Santa Anna would suppose point blank; none can be more easily led by the nose when properly and sagaciously managed.

The departure of Santa Anna is also a subject of conversation, but it demands less comment than before. The test is the President would like to leave, but will and if he can raise money for carrying on the Government. Therein lies the difficulty. I do not see how he can possibly obtain money. The forced project of forming the customs is quite up-hill of, but it is considered impracticable. If the other themes of raising the wind is discovered, the discoverer of his departure will add remain. I am disposed to believe that Santa Anna accomplished an object by means of ruse for several reasons—after leaving an armed guard about for the ex-officer or his family.—Mr. Widell is now at Washington, and Mr. Bonnell, Texas at Boston on commercial affairs. Long is dead—it is all but officially announced that the Presidency and his family were poisoned by a Negro of Santa Anna's. Whether this be true or not I cannot say. Vidal leaves for Washington and will be accompanied by the President's wife, her daughter Rosa Hernandez, Carmen, a daughter of Rosa Santa, and her brother, H. Charles Hartwell, and one by the President's old aid-de-camp, so that in a short time you may expect to receive the major part of Rosa Santa family.

Monasterio's whether Mr. Vidal is well received at Washington or not, will depend upon the condition of the relations between the two countries. Vidal himself is straining every nerve to bring about a reconciliation. Eight or ten days ago Mr. Gadsden had a private, personal interview with Santa Anna, and had another to day. The result of their conference is unknown, but I am inclined to believe that no disposition from the part of either Minister would will cause the rending, will be much more comfortable in term than the previous ones.

Gen Bonnel, a man heretofore yesterday for the third time, and ordered to repair to Tabasco. He is accused of intriguing against the present Ministry. There is not a citizen of the Republic, but is guilty of the same misdemeanor, so universally and justly hated is the Bonilla Cabinet.

LAKE CONSERT.—The concert which was to have been given by Lehmann's band at the Washington Garden, Lake Pontchartrain, tonight, has been postponed to Saturday evening, on account of the inclemency of the weather. The programme on that occasion will be the same as that announced for to-night, which was to have taken place on Tuesday evening last.

☞ GOVERNOR REEDER has sent in his message to the Kansas Legislature. It contends for the right of the people to settle their own affairs unbiassed by the other States, and says that the territorial legislature may not on the question of slavery to a limited extent, and temporarily regulate it. He directs attention to the definition of the boundaries of the counties and districts, and the qualification of voters. He recommends that a stringent liquor law be adopted on account of the Indians. He thinks that a light tax only is required, and contends that pre-emptions may be taxed. He recommends the immediate establishment of the seat of government, and announces that the population of the territory amounts to 3,383 females, and 5 133 males.

The legislature fixed upon the Shawnee Mission as the temporary seat of government. The Governor vetoed the measure, but the legislature passed it over the vetoed, and adjourned to meet again at the Shawnee Mission.

DON'T BE ASTONISHED !—The Alabama American papers are entirely confident of a brilliant victory next month at the State elections. We can hardly credit it, but if it should prove true, we shall put down Alabama as the banner State in the Union.

STEAMER SWAMP FOX SUNK.—This steamboat, while on her way from Alexandria for the port, when near Gorton's Landing, on last Friday, struck a stump, which tore a hole in her bottom flooring nearly 40 feet in length, causing her to sink in four feet water. She was entirely light, the cargo engaged for her being brought to the mouth in flats. Captain Kimball arrived here yesterday for the purpose of procuring assistance, and no doubt he will be enabled to raise her very shortly.

☞ The steamer Baltimore, which was reported sunk a few days ago, is in a very critical position; at Chester she struck a snag and sank immediately, about 60 feet from the shore, in deep water. It is supposed she will break in two, as she is badly bent. We understand that no lives were lost. The Baltimore was a regular passenger boat from St. Louis to Louisville, and was on her regular trip to the latter city when the accident occurred.

☞ The persons arrested at Buffalo for violating the sanctity in which have been fully committed in default of $2 000 bail. The Court of Sessions at Buffalo have decided that imported liquors cannot be sold after the original package has been broken.

☞ At the annual commissiation of the Grand Encampment of I. O. O. F. of the State of Mississippi, held at Vicksburg on the 16th instant, we learn that the following named gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year:

M. W. G. P., R. D. HOWE, Vicksburg.
M. E. G. H. P., J. K. CONNELLY, Hernando.
M. W. G. S. W., L. K. HARRIS, Woodville.
M. W. G. J. W., JOHN CRAIG, Natchez.
R. W. G. T., J. B. DICKS.
R. W. G. I. W., W. S. WRIGHT, Yazoo City
R. W. G. Rep'te to G. L. U. S., A. M. FOOTE, Jackson.
W. G. Sentinel, J. E. FORNEY, Vicksburg.

The New York Democracy.

The Administration wing of the New York Democracy, the "Softs," propose to hold a State Convention in August; and as the Southern Democracy assert that "the Northern Democracy is the only party organized, or that can be found at the North, with which Southern men can consistently unite," the following suggestion of a Congressman in relation to the proposed organ of the party, as Syracuse Journal, may be interesting to Southern men; and we therefore commend it to their consideration:

1. Opposition to the proscriptive tenets of Know Nothingism.
2. Opposition to the extension of slavery.
3. Encouragement of the honesty and statesmanship of Gov. Reeder, and approving the course of the Executive in refusing to remove him from office.
4. Free trade and direct taxation for the support of government.
5. An unqualified endorsement of all the vetoes of President Pierce, and approval of his general policy, so far as it accords with reason and justice.
6. The total repeal of the unconstitutional and oppressive Liquor Law of this State.
7. Condemnation of the profligate course of the present Whig State Administration.

☞ The fall vote of Virginia at the late election was 156 998. The Democracy received more votes than Mr. Pierce did in 1852.

TO THE POINT.—The truth is, that there are two simple arguments in favor of the American cause, that the Administration party cannot answer:

1. SAM'S PLATFORM ON THE SLAVERY QUESTION IS THE BEST EVER MADE.
2. THE PIERCE ADMINISTRATION HAS PROVED ITSELF A FREE SOIL ADMINISTRATION!

The leaders of the South will not sustain Pierceism in any party. It is useless for the Pierce and Reader men to try to escape under the name of the Democratic party. They are not the people know it. They know it, and the people know it. The Pierce and Reader party is the North, are Van Buren's old party, the Softs. The Anti-Nebraska men are the Hards, the constitutional Democrats, led by Dickinson, of New York. Those last are true Democrats and their interests are those of the Administration, because it is Democratic.

Let Sam's friends, Democrat and Whig, work away. Pierce and Reader must not be tolerated in the South!

STEAMBOAT ACCIDENT.—Steamer C. Hays, Capt. Brandenburg, from Memphis, with 1299 bales of cotton, arrived here yesterday morning. While ascending the river, when about 60 miles below Greenville on Saturday night, 14th inst., at 9 o'clock, struck a snag, carrying away part of the starboard bolter deck, breaking chimney, &c., and penetrating the cabin through the hurricane deck and otherwise injuring her; also severely injuring two deck hands. The C Hays will be immediately repaired and ready to leave again for Memphis on Saturday next, 28th inst.

HON. JERE CLEMENS ON THE PLATFORM!—Col. Jere Clemens has written a letter to J E Peebles, of Guntersville, Alabama, on the American party—which is published in the Huntsville Advocate. He says:

"It is proper for me to say, that I never was in a Know Nothing lodge but once—that I do not know of a single sign or password, and could not to-day obtain admission to any Council in the State, unless it was through the intervention of a friend; but I condemn their pleasure and purpose to defend their principles. They are the principles of Washington, and Jefferson, and Jackson, and were as of ever more importance, they are principles of the CONSTITUTION."

☞ To give an idea of the confusion of parties in New York, look at the subjoined list of State political Conventions about to be held:

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN ST. LOUIS.—On the morning of the 17th a fire broke out in a brewery stable on Locust street, between Third and Fourth, at St. Louis, and spreading rapidly destroyed a number of adjacent buildings, involving a loss of $70,000, not more than one-third of which is insured. The Republican says:

Among the incidents relating to the fire, was one worthy of recording. A boy was seen in the fourth story or room of the burning building; he threw his body out of the window, and by the horrified onlookers, a gentleman stationed to receive her from the gallant assistant to watch the descent of the boy, and to catch him in his arms. He walked over it, gained her name and knew his name. Immediately assistants drove the crowd back, and he up to support a sheet of flame. A young lady and a little girl were rescued by Wesson, in the same manner, from an adjoining house. Both of these ladies are married, and a good deal is said of the gallantry of the young man who thus risked his life to save others. Mr. Wesson is a resident of Alton, and is now visiting friends in this city. He has been engaged in the service of the Missouri Republican for some time past, and is well known to many of our citizens.

☞ A desperate fight between Gen. Hays and Col. H Green Foster was, on Tuesday, commenced on the 7th District, and Col. Robt. F. Tripp as the Independent.

☞ When death is at the door, the remedy which would have up at 11, if administered in time would save his life. So we talk with disease. Many cases in which the remedy will not cure fatal-ness and insanity prevents the application of the remedy in time. The remedy is Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, the application of which to the throat and lungs will relieve the most distressing cough, and the most dangerous—only apply it, and others know it. Sold by all druggists. [my26

Hemorrhoids.—The American party of this parish have made the following nominations:

For the Legislature.—J. C. Brooks and Gen. S. Wilkins.
For Sheriff.—J. W. Norris.
For Clerk.—J. H. Hamilton.
For Coroner.—Dr. Leslie Leigh.
For Assessor.—Wm. L. Hale.

The Gibraltar says:

Our news and vicinity is infested with runaway negroes, and those together with the numerous gangs of free negroes resident in and about Bobbadilla, are to be soon held bound in our streets, at all hours of the night.—It is our opinion that a patrol should be organized in our midst, in order to stop the nuisance which exists.

MISSOURI PRO-SLAVERY CONVENTION.—A despatch from St. Louis of the 19th says:

The evening session of the second day of the Pro Slavery Convention was largely attended. Mr. Gamble, in the Chair, was entertained with grand excitement and confusion on the subject of President Buchanan's address. Finally, the chairman was requested to read the address, which he did, and was requested for publication. The third day was also stormy. A platform was adopted setting forth the following: That the agitation of the slavery question in Congress and in the several States, will finally result in a dissolution of the Union; and the resolution of the non-slaveholding States to abolish slavery in the States, is a declaration of hostility to the Constitution; that the agitation of slavery tends to the amelioration of the condition of the slaves, and to emigrate an equilibrium against non-slave holding majority; that the Kansas and Nebraska act, and the legislative slave law are certainly approved; that the incorporation of assisted associations for the purpose of colonization in Kansas, is an unprecedented measure, and an attempt to pervert the purposes of the Constitution and the government of Congress. While disclaiming any intention to interfere with sovereign rights of others, offices Pro-ers of the south portion, they will protect themselves and property by the organization of the organization of Missouri contain 50,000 slaves, which will be valuable if Kansas becomes the abode of abolitionists.

The good sense of the north is expected to put down fanatical aggressions, and leave Kansas to amicable settlement.

A committee was appointed to publish an address to the people of the United States on the history of the Kansas excitement. A copy of the address to the Pro-Slavery Convention were ordered to be forwarded to the Executive of each State.

Resolutions were adopted calling on the Missouri Legislature to legislate within the Constitution against the protests, &c., of Massachusetts and other States practically nullifying the fugitive slave law.

The Convention then adjourned sine die.

The circumstance of which he has given to the Police Committee of the Board. The companions of the man, who were in a boat, saw the monster when he was several yards from the shore, and immediately put his approach, but he thinking they were only trying to frighten him, paid no attention to their admonition, and succeeded in getting near enough to the boat to be struck by the monster. He was then compelled to retire from the water, and was attended by a young physician, who happened to be in the neighborhood. Dr. Perrin is now doing well.
