IN EAST STREET,
Between St. Anne and Maine Streets.
M. GARNIER'S INSTITUTION, which has been

MYSTIQUE exists only since the 16th July, already possessed more than thirty pupils. Nothing has been required to enter into the publican an education at once solid and valuable, given by the following professors:

M. GARNIER, Director of the Superior Classes in French History, Geography, &c.

M. BEAUSSET, Ex-Professor of the Normal School, Paris, supervisor mathematics and drawing.

M. DE VILLEPIN, for the intermediate French classes.

M. LAFAYETTE, for the Elementary classes.

An English professor established marks, give lesson twice a day in that language.

The young ladies placed under the immediate superintendence of Mme. GARREAU, are separated entirely from the other sex. Every branch of instruction necessary to the young lady is imparted to them with the utmost care and exactness.

Instruction in Music is attended to by a teacher known in New Orleans for many years.
