OFFICIAL

SIXTEENTH LEGISLATURE—SECOND SESSION.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, 19th February, 1844.

The House met agreeably to adjournment:

On motion, leave of absence for a few days was granted to Messrs. Prescott, Robertson, Chitty and Brou.

The Speaker laid before the House the memorial of sundry citizens of the city of Lafayette, praying for the passage of a bill creating Tobacco Inspectors for said city.

On motion, the same was laid on the table subject to the call of the House.

Mr Phelps offered the following resolution:

Resolved by the Senate, &c., That both Houses of the Legislature will meet in the Hall of Representatives, at 12 o'clock, M., on Monday 26th instant, and there and then proceed to elect by ballot a State Treasurer.

Which resolution was read for a first time, and on motion, the rules having been dispensed with, underwent a second reading and was adopted.

The clerk was directed to request the concurrence of the Senate therein.

The same member also offered the following resolution:

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives, &c. That it is the sense of this Legislature, that it is the Convention to be called to amend the Constitution of this State should in the deliberations of said body exceed the specifications provided in the act of the Legislature, entitled "an act for taking the sense of the good people of this State as to the necessity and expediency of calling a Convention to amend the Constitution," approved 20th January, 1841, that the amendments adopted by the Convention should be submitted to the people of the State for their approval or rejection, before the same shall become the supreme law of the State and binding upon the Constitution of the same.

Which resolution was read for a first time, and on motion, ordered for a second reading on to-morrow.

Mr Sparrow of the Special Committee to whom was referred—

An act to amend an act creating the parish of Franklin, approved 1st March 1843, and for other purposes, reported said bill without amendments.

Said bill was read for the second time.

On motion the rules were dispensed with, it underwent its third reading, and passed as amended.

On motion, the rules were also dispensed with, and the Secretary informed the House of the concurrence of the Senate with amendments to said bill.

He also requested the concurrence of the House to An act in relation to the navigation of Bayous Tèche Courtableau and Fusilier.

And to the Resolution fixing the day for the election of a State Treasurer for the year 1844.

SPECIAL ORDER OF THE DAY.

Second Reading.

The Senate took up as an act to encourage the destruction of wolves and other predatory wild animals; Said bill underwent its second reading;

The first section of said bill, which was in the following words, was read:

Section 1st. Be it enacted, &c., That every person who shall kill any wolf, panther, bear, or wild cat, in any parish in this State, shall be entitled to receive for each animal so killed, from the State Treasury, on due proof of the same as hereinafter provided, the following compensation:

For every wolf,	$
" " panther,
" " bear,
" " wild cat,

Section 2d. Be it further enacted, &c., That it shall be the duty of the Parish Judge of each Parish of this State, whenever any person shall exhibit and deliver to him any scalp or scalps of the animals mentioned in the foregoing section, and shall make an affidavit that they were killed in the State, to issue, under his signature and seal of office, in favor of said person or bearer, his certificate, in substance like unto the following, for the number of animals of each kind as aforesaid, which such person has proven to him to have been killed, and the compensation to be allowed in the first section of this act; which certificate shall be the duty of the judge to keep a list or register of the numbers he has proven to have been killed; and return a copy of the same, annually, to the Auditor of Public Accounts, after he makes his return of fees, and to destroy immediately after the delivery of the certificate, all the scalps for which he has issued the same, and shall be entitled to charge the person in whose favor the certificate issues, any fee for the same, but for every certificate so issued he shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents to be paid by said party at the time of the delivery of the certificate.

Section 3d. Be it further enacted, &c., That it shall be the duty of all collectors of State taxes to receive and receipt for, any warrant tendered to them, the certificates authorized by this act, and it shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to receive and cancel the same when offered from any collector of taxes, and to pay the amounts when presented by any person not a collector, in the same manner as any other State warrant is paid; and it shall not be lawful for any collector or other officer shall take and receive any of said certificates at less than par, or shall refuse to take or pay them whenever tendered, and if any such public officer shall refuse to perform any of the duties required by this act, such officer so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to an impeachment; and may also be proceeded on conviction, by fine at the discretion of the court, and shall also be liable in damages to the person injured by such omission or refusal.

Mr Elmore called for the yeas and nays on Mr. Armant's motion, and the result was, that Messrs. Armant, Dupré, Lacoste, Labauve, Ledoux, Livaudais, Morse, and Thibodeaux voted in the affirmative—9 yeas; and Messrs. Bernard, Carter, Davidson, Downs, Dupré, Lecoste, Labauve, Ledoux, Livaudais, Marshall, Morse, Strong, Sterrett, Thibodeaux and Wadsworth voted against it—13 nays.

Mr Armant moved that said bill, which was in the following words, be laid indefinitely on the table:

To encourage the destruction of Wolves and other predatory wild Animals.

Section 1st. Be it enacted, &c., That every person who shall kill any wolf, panther, bear or wild cat, in any Parish in this State, shall be entitled to receive for each animal so killed, from the State Treasury, on due proof of the same as hereinafter provided, the following compensation:

For every wolf,	$
" " panther,
" " bear,
" " wild cat,

Section 2d. Be it further enacted, &c., That it shall be the duty of the Parish Judge of each Parish of this State, whenever any person shall exhibit and deliver to him any scalp or scalps of the animals mentioned in the foregoing section, and shall make an affidavit that they were killed in the State, to issue, under his signature and seal of office, in favor of said person or bearer, his certificate, in substance like unto the following, for the number of animals of each kind as aforesaid, which such person has proven to him to have been killed, and the compensation to be allowed in the first section of this act; which certificate shall be the duty of the judge to keep a list or register of the numbers he has proven to have been killed; and return a copy of the same, annually, to the Auditor of Public Accounts, after he makes his return of fees, and to destroy immediately after the delivery of the certificate, all the scalps for which he has issued the same, and shall be entitled to charge the person in whose favor the certificate issues, any fee for the same, but for every certificate so issued he shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents to be paid by said party at the time of the delivery of the certificate.

Section 3d. Be it further enacted, &c., That it shall be the duty of all collectors of State taxes to receive and receipt for, any warrant tendered to them, the certificates authorized by this act, and it shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to receive and cancel the same when offered from any collector of taxes, and to pay the amounts when presented by any person not a collector, in the same manner as any other State warrant is paid; and it shall not be lawful for any collector or other officer shall take and receive any of said certificates at less than par, or shall refuse to take or pay them whenever tendered, and if any such public officer shall refuse to perform any of the duties required by this act, such officer so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to an impeachment; and may also be proceeded on conviction, by fine at the discretion of the court, and shall also be liable in damages to the person injured by such omission or refusal.

Mr Elmore called for the yeas and nays on Mr. Armant's motion, and the result was, that Messrs. Armant, Dupré, Lacoste, Labauve, Ledoux, Livaudais, Morse, and Thibodeaux voted in the affirmative—9 yeas; and that Messrs. Bernard, Davidson, Downs, Marshall, Sparrow and Walker voted against the motion—8 nays.

Mr Armant's motion was consequently adopted; and said bill was laid on the table.

The Senate then took up, and on motion, the sale of certain property belonging to the State, which was also made the special order of the day.

On motion of Mr Lacoste, said bill was laid on the table subject to the call of the Senate.

ORDER OF THE DAY.
