THE REFORM TICKET.

Our [illegible] views of the Courier and True Delta [illegible] to bestow an unusual amount of [illegible] upon the course of the Bee [illegible] the Independent Reform Ticket [illegible] in large and expensive [illegible] We [illegible] stop [illegible] in favor of Independent [illegible] it they refer with indignity [illegible] to former years when we [illegible] opposed party candidates at municipal [illegible]. It is a sufficient reply to these objectors that we are satisfied of the error [illegible] our previous views, and experience [illegible] the municipal and municipal elections [illegible] of the community will be much more efficiently promoted by the choice of capable and honest citizens, unconnected with previous party ties, than by those who are in subjection to exclusive references to party [illegible] organization. We have always [illegible] to vote invariably by a Democratic [illegible] standard. The people have [illegible] it to be [illegible] and are utterly dissatisfied [illegible] working. The names on the ticket were published on the very day that the meeting was held, and it was published in advance in the publication [illegible] to avoid [illegible] to the [illegible] and to [illegible] opportunity for deliberation. Now, [illegible] to the [illegible] of the Courier was present on [illegible] as it [illegible] was not known that the names of the Independent candidates were [illegible] to be [illegible] by a [illegible] meeting. Where [illegible] that however unpalatable [illegible] may be to the Courier, it was [illegible] to [illegible] to the mass in the name as [illegible] it found to be [illegible] and [illegible] power.
