MARINE NEWS.

OFFICE OF THE HERALD,
SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 30, 1867.

The demand for GOLD has been very fair to-day, and the market has been somewhat unsettled, with a tendency upward. Prices have ranged from 138½ to 139½, closing at the latter figure. Carrying rates have been 6 per cent. Sterling Exchange has been dull and heavy, with a decline of ½ per cent. Quotations have been 109½ for 60 days and 110½ for sight. Government bonds have been dull and heavy. The following were the transactions at the Stock Board:

[Table: Sales at the Stock Board — Second Board, Morning Session; Second Board, Afternoon Session; Regular Board, Morning Session; Regular Board, Afternoon Session. Columns: Name of Stock, Sales, Opening, Highest, Lowest, Closing.]

COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE HERALD,
SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 30, 1867.

The demand for GOLD has been very fair to-day, and the market has been somewhat unsettled, with a tendency upward. Prices have ranged from 138½ to 139½, closing at the latter figure. Carrying rates have been 6 per cent. Sterling Exchange has been dull and heavy, with a decline of ½ per cent. Quotations have been 109½ for 60 days and 110½ for sight. Government bonds have been dull and heavy. The following were the transactions at the Stock Board:

[Table: Sales at the Stock Board — Second Board, Morning Session; Second Board, Afternoon Session; Regular Board, Morning Session; Regular Board, Afternoon Session. Columns: Name of Stock, Sales, Opening, Highest, Lowest, Closing.]

MISCELLANEOUS.

MISCELLANEOUS.

EDUCATION.

MEDICAL.

AGUECURE

AUCTION SALES.

AUCTION SALES.

AUCTION SALES.