1. (S) Personal Information: Sajin Urayman is a Pakistani national born in 1984 (age 18) in Gujranwala, Pakistan. Detainee is in good health.
2. (FOUO) Detention Information: Approximately 10 October 2001, subject detainee and two friends, Nazir Husain and Abdul Majid, departed via bus from Gujranwala, Pakistan to Kandahar, Afghanistan. From there, they flew to Mazar-e-Sharif to visit holy shrines for about one month. After Northern Alliance forces captured Mazar-e-Sharif, detainee became separated from his two friends and fled the city in a pickup truck. Outside Herat, Farsi-speaking Afghans captured and incarcerated him for twelve days in Gulran, Afghanistan before transferring him to Afghan custody. Detainee was incarcerated in Herat for approximately three months before being transferred to U.S. control in late January 2002. The detainee was later transported to Guantanamo Bay Naval Base, Cuba, because of his general knowledge of conflict in the region. He arrived on 13 June 2002. The detainee has been cooperative, but Joint Task Force Guantanamo considers the information obtained from and about him as not valuable or tactically exploitable.

Subject detainee has not expressed thoughts of violence or made threats toward the U.S. or its allies during interrogations or in the course of his detention. Based on the above, detainee does not pose a future threat to the U.S. or U.S. interests.
