Instructions:

There are several activities contained in this document.

1) The learner is given the flash cards along with the sheet entitled, "a" and "b" with the line down the vertical center. The student sorts the cards into the correct column.

2) There are two students playing together, each with their own deck of cards. One student has the flash cards with the clip-art, where the other student has the cards with either the starting letter, or the entire word spelled out. Student A puts down the picture of the bee where the second student puts down either the "b" or "bee" card.

All the contained graphics are in the Public Domain. This document is in the Public Domain.
