OURY OF PROBATES—rarish of Tellerenn.—By virtue of a decree of the honorable the Court of Probates of the Parish of Jefferson, rendered on the 26th of January, instant, I will offer at sale, at Hewhelt's Exchange, in New Orleans, on Wedneadan, the 4th Merch, next at 19 o'clock, noon, the property hereinafter describ-ed, forming part of the succession of Louis D'aquin and of Celinic Adelside Deynaut, his wife, both deceased, to A Plantation or Tract of Land, situated in the parish of Jefferson, about eight miles above the city of New Or-leans, on the same bank of the Mississippi, being the same n which the deceased resided. and on which the deceased resided, and was sy their cutti-vated as a sugar plantation until the present year, and before them, by Calonge and Deivaille, and Mr Al Queen. This plantation will be sold in lots of one arpert in width, with all the length or depth extending from the Mississippi river to lake Pontchartein. It contains IS arpents front on the river, and the depth which it runs between parallel lines, is estimated by the oldest neighbors at between 120 and 130 arpents.

Besides the part which is cleared and in cultivation, the surplus of this land is well timbered, and the fire word and other timber on it, will be, when sail roads are extended across it, a source of great revenue to the persharers. The Metatrie bayou runs across it, at a distance of about 40 arpents from the river, and on the opening of the Nictairie road, persons living on this land will have a prompt and convenient route to the city. On several of the ots there are improvements of considerable value. On one, the dwelling house and sugar house; on another, all the negro caoins, warehouses, stables, &c.; on a mird, the old dwelling house, &c. &c..

The plan of division, inade out by the parish surveyor, will be exposed at the Exchange in a few days.
