[illegible]ffee—The market has remained exceedingly heavy during the week, only confined to small parcels for immediate sale. Prices have declined fully ½ per lb. [illegible]ard, the sales have included 1 [illegible] 900 bags Brazil [illegible] 12, 300 Porto Rico [illegible]; 50 St Domingo, 10; 150 [illegible] poor, 11¼, 50 very common do 9¾; 50 Sumatra, [illegible],400 Laguyra on terms not transpired; besides [illegible] ing parcels of other descriptions at previous [illegible]tion—The reception of the intelligence from Engl[illegible] yesterday, produced a more favorable state of [illegible]ng, though without imparting any additional activ[illegible] the market. The transactions previously had [illegible]umed remain generally at 11@11¼, with a fair[illegible]reduction in prices, embracing 1200 bales New Or[illegible]s at 13 a 13½; 300 Florida 14¼ a 15; 50 Mobile 14 a [illegible] and 30 Uplands at 13½, being a total for [illegible] week of full 2000 bales. The arrivals have been [illegible]our and Meal—The extreme heaviness noticed [illegible]n many previous, prohibited selling to any extent [illegible] our market. In Western Canal though we re[illegible]ceive quotations, we hear of no sales making. [illegible]a reduction would be requisite to ensure operations [illegible]here to dealers, there is no doubt, and they [illegible]to be stated to fully 25 cents lower than when last [illegible] sale of 3 to 4000 barrels Scioteville Virginia [illegible]ere made at 4.87½, Alexandria 4.87½, Georgetown [illegible]ndria, 10,75 a 11. Sales of Rye Flour, from store, [illegible]ue at 4.50. Corn Meal remains nominal at for[illegible]rates.

Molasses—The supplies are moderate, but in the [illegible]ence of an animated demand, there is a continued [illegible]cation of declining prices. The sales embrace 30 [illegible] Porto Rico at 27 cents, 30 bales and hhds New Or[illegible] at the same rate; 80 hhds do in lots at 29 a 30½; 100 [illegible] Havana, lots, 30 a 33½; and a parcel of 200 brls N[illegible]ans at 26c, all 4 mos.

Provisions—Extreme heat has ceased continues to prevail, [illegible] articles beneath the head. The sales of Beef [illegible] are limited to small lots for ship stores and [illegible]ne. We quote Mess at 9 for Western Prime at [illegible]121 cents—large supplies from New Orleans are [illegible]ected. The stock of Cheese is almost exhausted [illegible]e of Bacon at 13½, and Smoked Beef, 11¼ [illegible]

Lard—Hot here are firm; the transactions during the [illegible]s have comprised 200 tierces at 93,81½@94 per 100 [illegible] the latter rate for one of the primest lots in mar[illegible]

Sugars—Transactions since our last have been great[illegible] interrupted by stormy weather, which has prevented various importations from landing. The sales, however, notwithstanding their restricted character, exhibit [illegible] of one half a cent per lb. on Muscovados, while [illegible] Sugars, of which supplies are still comparatively [illegible] have undergone no special variation. The sales [illegible] made of 50 hhds Cuba, mixed, at 8½ a 9½; 50 [illegible]s, at 9¾; 300 boxes Brown Havana, 7¾ a 8¾; 100 [illegible]s do 10¾ a 11¾; and 300 bags new crop White Bra[illegible]t a 9¾ cents.

NEW YORK, March 25.

[illegible]s yesterday was a sanguine day—a day of ups and [illegible]ns—a day of hopes and rumors of failures. At the [illegible]ning of the stock exchange, prices generally receded very rapidly. There was a kind of a little panic at the Board. The commencement for some time, until it [illegible] announced that an arrival from Havre, with the news of [illegible]e later, was below. This news was circulated with [illegible]dity. A rise in the price of cotton, a slight one, [illegible]ally one cent, and the receipt of the packet from [illegible]ry market, stopped for a while the downward [illegible]ency of events. Several stocks under this new [illegible]ment, rose slightly, but they did not last long.

[illegible]n examination it was ascertained that the slight [illegible]ction in the foreign markets was only, or could be [illegible] of a transitory nature. A few days after the last [illegible] packet, it will be recollected, a rise in the city [illegible]s called a "let up," a slight cessation of the pres[illegible]e pause in the great revulsion which has been [illegible]g for months past. Under that news the London [illegible] market recovered a little, and cotton had [illegible]ed a shade. It is believed that the next arrival [illegible]reverse the state of things, and again plunge us [illegible]o deeper trouble. Under this view of the [illegible]s, [illegible]s as languidly and gloomily as ever. Stocks will [illegible]s likely fall much lower.

[illegible]hroughout there is a complete state of [illegible]ation. It is now quoted at 1 1-8. Vast quantities [illegible]omestic exchange from the south are expected to [illegible]e arrived during the next month. We also [illegible]ve a great deal of exchange from Europe next [illegible]e same way. The high price also will call away [illegible]ecies, and nothing can save it.

[illegible]nder the state of things above, failures continue to [illegible]announced. Two or three large houses in the foreign [illegible]rade were announced as having suspended here yes[illegible]day, and as many in Philadelphia. On tracing out [illegible]causes of them in future, we find they arise from [illegible]heir too great extension in land operations, or in the [illegible]outh western trade. The commercial relations be[illegible]ween the north and south are now broken up, and [illegible]o many merchants owe large sums of money [illegible]o New York, and there is no probability of any cash [illegible]ecoming. There is a complete derangement in [illegible]commercial connections, and, in fact, all these causes will unquestionably affect our foreign trade.

The general markets are extremely inactive. The [illegible]rices of provisions is extremely low, and have experienced a slight decline, and the market is dull. We quote St Croix at 9¾@10, and Porto Rico 9¾@[illegible]; New Orleans, 9¾@10¼; Havana, 9¾@10¼; Manilla brown 7¾@[illegible]; Laguy 13@13½; leaf 16@17; [illegible]on 10@11. Coffee is extremely heavy, and what [illegible]w transactions have taken place, have been at a de[illegible]—Jaya 11¾@12; Cuba 9¾@11; Java 12@13; Porto [illegible]o, 11@9¾; Laguyra 11@12¾; St Domingo 10@10½; [illegible]mains in the market. We have to notice very [illegible]ederate sales of rice—some 3 or 400 tierces. There [illegible]s at all to notice a decline in molasses of full one [illegible]er gallon, and sales have been moderate. New [illegible]ans 30@; Porto Rico 29@31; Havana and Matanzas 25@28.

[illegible]ssil, no change has taken place from our yesterday's [illegible]uotations. The dealers are panicking for the fall [illegible]ade, going to place upon the market. The auction [illegible]es took place yesterday. In Tobacco there have been no sales this week of any description, except 56 [illegible]s common Kentucky at auction averaging 3 cents, [illegible]d some Seconds and Regie[illegible], manufactured, ranging from 54 to 9 cents, cash.

The [illegible]ommon market is unchanged in the face of the [illegible]ess in Genl. No material abundance in the soul[illegible]en gleam of light across the water.

Such were the sensations of things yesterday in Wall street and within the vortex of its influence. What is to be done? What is to become of us? Where any remedy [illegible]? Can the storm be stayed "in mid career"? The Wall street prints, those corrupt and unchaste vehicles [illegible]s of speculation, are full of gloomy forebodings and [illegible]nostrums. Like the Brandreth quacks of the day, each one comes forward with his pill, his universal [illegible]he vegetable pill. Repeal the treasury order, [illegible]ve the bloated Currency gave us, and restore the [illegible]tates Bank, says the Express; let us pray, says the Journal of Commerce. All the remedies are more or less [illegible]d unavailing. At this day the treasury order is a dead letter. Whatever quantity of specie there may be in the country, it is not in the hands of the bank vaults. The destruction of the small note circulation has placed the specie in the pockets of the people. The banks cannot get the specie if they desire it. Again; as to the loan of five millions of post notes by the United States Bank, how many persons should this be done? Would it not only continue the regime of 3 and 4 per cent a month? At this moment no failures are taking place, but those who ought to have failed months ago. The commencement of the commerce only effects those who have been doing an illegitimate business. Such as have conducted business on the old and legitimate principles, are safe as ever. The embarrassments of 1837 only affect 10 per cent of the whole foreign and domestic trade of this great country. [illegible]s to the good old times, as we say, we will take four or six months to clear the atmosphere. There is not a single word uttered by the Wall street press that can be depended on. They are all steeped to the eyes in speculations—the Express—the Journal—the Courier and all.

ROCHELLE, Feb 16.

Business in Brandies has been tolerably active this week. Some houses in this place have made important purchases for the United States, as well of old as new Brandies—one house alone contracted for 1100 pipes, and at 114 a 115 for delivery in March and [illegible]

We believe that now all idea of a decline must be given up, for a good number of American vessels are expected in our port, take in cargoes of Brandy, which [illegible] circumstances, in another day demands from the interior will serve to keep up present prices.

MARSEILLES Feb 18.

The sales of Cotton this week amount to 1200 bales [illegible]t prices do not advance. 40 Louisianas have been taken [illegible]at 128 a 127 10. The remainder mid wax Jumel Mako and Levant.

BORDEAUX, Feb 10.

Cotton—Havre has lost a little of her influence o[illegible] the prices of this article at this market. Our buyers have not been in a hurry to purchase this week. 60 bales Louisiana sold at 1 11[illegible]; Bengal was most in demand. 375 sold at 7 87, 80 a 7 93.

Rice—31 tierces of good have been sold at 1 20 50; and 44 inferior do at 1 05 50 a 1 07, according to quality.

AMSTERDAM, Feb 10.

Coffee.—Nothing of importance done in this article. The sales are small and confined to 1000 bags Java, sold at auction, at 37 a 39 cents, in entrepot. On the whole there has been no change in the market.

Cotton.—The decline in our markets of the prices of this article has had no influence, and the trade have been confined to 250 bales United States, Surinam and Berbice.

Sugar—Several parcels of East India, Havana and Surinam, have been sold at former prices.

ANTWERP, Feb. 21.

Coffee.—The sales consist of 500 bags Havana, at 29½ 33½ cents, according to quality; 300 bags Brazil 30 a 30½.

Fire.

Last evening about 9 o'clock, an alarm of fire was given. It was found to proceed from the burning of the rubbish of the fire of the preceding evening, on Old Levee street.

Infanticide.

This crime,—which ought to strike every mother's heart with horror, upon which the laws of society have imposed a punishment of greater severity, as it is more easy of commission, has of late made an alarming progress in our city. Several instances have occurred in the last few months—a species of assassination, committed by a hand.

Which should spare the murderer shut the door!

On one occasion an infant was found in the ruins of the house of Mrs Labery, dressed in an expensive & extravagant style; embroidered robes, ribbons; nothing was wanting that wealth could afford—even the fatal knot by which it was strangled, was a ribbond corresponding in costliness to the rest of its apparel! What ingenuity, what vanity in crime!

On Sunday last another offence of this sort was discovered. A child was thrown alive into Marigny's canal—at least it showed convulsive signs of life after the body was discovered. We shall expose the police of the Third Municipality, where this hideous crime was committed, to exert all their activity and perseverance to discover the unnatural author.

This evening at the St. Charles, for the debut of the Italian Company, from Havana, Ballini's grand Opera Seria, entitled Montechi e Capuletti or Giulietta e Romeo.

Mr Henry Johnson.

This gentleman has published an Address to the people of the First District, whom he represents in Congress. Mr Johnson in return to the trust he has done every thing in his power to advance the interests of his constituents—and we believe him. Mr Johnson gives us some edifying strictures on political affairs—in which as a southern man, he goes the whole for the interests of that quarter of the union—even to the length of intimating that he is ready for separation if those interests should be seriously menaced by the wicked conspiracies of the northern abolitionists. This device to catch popularity in the south is growing stale and unfashionable, and it has been resorted to of late on occasions of insignificant consequence. A dissolution of the union is a matter that ought not to be lightly touched: the phrase is odious to the honest feelings of nine tenths of the people of the United States—and the political conduct of those who first preached the doctrine of disunion, has been so inconsistent, so profligate, so unpatriotic, that it would have become unpopular even if it were sound in principle. The people of the United States have applied to them a version of the Arabian tale—that a Kaiserbrook, are given on the authority of a letter from the supercargo.

We doubt not that our government will follow up the vigorous measures of their Consul and the gallant Commodore, in the case, for it is obvious that it is time to submit tamely to outrage and indignities of this nature, our ships may be left in foreign ports, with out seamen, whenever it suits the caprice of a British naval officer to take them from their vessels.

The above is caused Capt. Hackett is believed to be the same officer who committed a similar outrage on an American vessel in the port of Malaga, some months since.

FLAG STONES—1,250 square yards flag stones of five feet square, now landing at the upper places of the two men, of which she had been robbed, having been supplied through Com. Elliott. The detention, it being already late in the season, may prove seriously detrimental, if not entirely ruinous to the objects of the voyage. We doubt not that our government will follow up the vigorous measures of their Consul and the gallant Commodore, in the case, for it is obvious that it is time to submit tamely to outrage and indignities of this nature, our ships may be left in foreign ports, with out seamen, whenever it suits the caprice of a British naval officer to take them from their vessels.

The above is caused Capt. Hackett is believed to be the same officer who committed a similar outrage on an American vessel in the port of Malaga, some months since.
