MEETING WITH THE POLICE ATHLETIC LEAGUE
OF PHILDELPHIA (PAL) REPRESENTATIVES

THE WHITE HOUSE

FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 1969

THE PRESIDENT:

At 12:00 Noon you will be escorted from the East Room at the conclusion of your press conference back to the Portico outside your office.

Senators Hugh Scott, Richard Schweiker, Mr. Paul Kleiman, Chairman of PAL and Mr. John M. Elliott, Chairman of the Visit Committee, will greet you at the steps leading into the Rose Garden. You and your party will then descend into the Garden and you will greet and shake hands with approximately 125 students and eight policemen assembled there.

When you have met all the students, you and your party will return to a point at the middle of the line of students.

Mr. Kleiman will first present you with a life membership card to PAL and then two students will present you with scrolls containing 300,000 signatures of Philadelphia students from over 500 public and parochial schools participating in the PAL respect for law program.

MEETING WITH THE POLICE ATHLETIC LEAGUE CONTINUED:

THE PRESIDENT:

The PAL pledge which these students have signed reads as follows:

TO THE HONORABLE RICHARD M. NIXON
PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
AND TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, DO HEREBY AFFIRM OUR DEDICATION TO UPHOLDING LAW AND ORDER AND PROMISE TO FOLLOW THE PRECEPTS SET FORTH IN
THE POLICE ATHLETIC LEAGUE PLEDGE, WHICH READS:

"I PLEDGE TO LEARN AND PRACTICE THE RULES OF FAIR PLAY, TO RESPECT THE RIGHTS OF OTHERS, TO OBEY THE LAWS
OF OUR CITY, STATE AND COUNTRY, TO BE A CREDIT TO MY FAMILY, FRIENDS,
AND MYSELF, TO BE A LEADER FOR THE
GOOD THINGS OF LIFE AND THEREBY PRE-PARE MYSELF FOR THE TASK OF ADULTHOOD.

BACKGROUND NOTES:

The pledge campaign was initiated by PAL
as a means of impressing on the young people of Philadelphia that the respect for authority and Fair Play is the hallmark of a good citizen.

February was PAL month.

Each student who signed the pledge became a co-operating member of PAL, entitled to participate in the program sponsored by PAL.

MEETING WITH POLICE ATHLETIC LEAGUE:

THE PRESIDENT:

It is suggested that you make very brief informal acknowledging remarks.

It is estimated that your participation may take upwards to 30 minutes.

NOTE:

There will be photo coverage of the ceremony.

No remarks have been prepared.

RECEPTION FOR
THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF NEWSPAPER EDITORS

THE WHITE HOUSE

FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 1969

THE PRESIDENT:

At 6:05 p. m. you and the First Lady will be escorted from the Family Quarters of the Residence and will descend the Grand Staircase. You will pause two steps from the lower landing for the Marine Band to play Ruffles and Flourishes and to be announced. You will then step off as "Hail to the Chief" is played and proceed across the Grand Hall into the Blue Room where you will form a receiving line. A social aide will present the guests.

NOTE:

The dress is black tie and there will be approximately 1,200 guests. Due to the numbers involved, your guests will occupy the Grand Hall as well as the East Room when you first arrive.

There will be no Color Guard, but the flags will be in place behind you.

There will be press pool coverage of the receiving line in the Blue Room.

Your guests will enter from the Green Room and after they have been greeted by you and Mrs. Nixon will pass on to the State Dining Room.

THE PRESIDENT:

It is estimated that the time required to greet your guests will be approximately one hour and 30 minutes.

Mixed drinks and champagne will be passed on trays and hors d'oeuvres will be served in the State Dining Room and in the East Room.

NOTE:

No remarks have been prepared.

PORTRAIT SITTING

THE WHITE HOUSE

TUESDAY - APRIL 22, 1969

THE PRESIDENT:

At 4:15 p.m. you will be escorted from your office to the Cabinet Room for various formal photographs.

Mr. Joseph King of Winston-Salem has been commissioned by the President Nixon Portrait Committee to provide "the University with a portrait of the President" and will take various photographs to aid in painting your portrait. It is hoped that this portrait will be ready for presentation to Duke University (to hang in its Law School) at the University's June graduation ceremony.

At the same time, a photographer from the National Geographic Magazine will also be present to take pictures for inclusion in The White House, which is published by National Geographic for The White House Historical Association.

Ollie Atkins will also be present.

It is estimated that the sitting will be of approximately five to ten minutes duration.

DINNER HONORING CHIEF JUSTICE EARL WARREN

THE WHITE HOUSE

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 23, 1969

THE PRESIDENT:

At 7:50 p.m. the Chief Justice and Mrs. Earl Warren will be escorted to the Yellow Oval Room to join you and the First Lady for approximately 15 minutes.

You and Mrs. Nixon followed by Chief Justice and Mrs. Warren will then be escorted from the Family Quarters to the Grand Staircase which you will descend pausing two steps from the lower landing. The Warrens will join you on this step for a brief photo session.

Your other guests numbering about 110 will be assembled in the East Room where mixed drinks and champagne will be served.

The dress is black tie with long dresses for the ladies.

After the photographs you will proceed to the carpet in the Grand Hall and pause facing the East Room. Ruffles and Flourishes will be played by the Marine Band and you and your party will be announced. As "Hail to the Chief" is played you will move into the East Room and to your right forming a receiving line in front of the prepositioned Color Guard with your back to the west wall.

THE PRESIDENT:

Your guests will be presented to you by a social aide. When the receiving line is nearly completed, the social aides will begin to guide your guests out of the East Room and through the Green Room and Grand Hall to their places in the State Dining Room. When you have greeted the last of your guests, you and your party will in turn be escorted through the Grand Hall to your places in the State Dining Room.

Music during the dinner will be provided by the Strolling Strings.

It is recommended that you make brief remarks as the dinner draws to a close.

NOTE:

Suggested remarks have been prepared for your use and are attached.

The White House Communications Agency will record your remarks. These will be kept off the record and will not be released to the press.

A list of invited dinner guests is attached.

After dinner coffee, liqueurs and cigars will be served in the Green, Red and Blue Rooms to your dinner guests.

You and the First Lady and Chief Justice and Mrs. Warren will be escorted through the Grand Hall to a point just outside the East Room where you will form a receiving line. A social aide will then present your after dinner guests to you.

THE PRESIDENT

At approximately 10:20 p. m. you will be seated in the front row in the East Room for about 30 minutes of entertainment provided by Mildred Miller, concert singer with the Metropolitan Opera of New York. Your dinner guests will have already been seated.

NOTE:

Mildred Miller's husband, Wesley Posvar, who will be in attendance, is the Chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh, a member of the Council of Foreign Relations and was named one of the Ten Outstanding Young Men in America in 1959.

At the conclusion of the entertainment your guests will be escorted to the Grand Hall where there will be dancing. Mixed drinks and champagne will be served.

At this time you and Mrs. Nixon are to escort the Warrens to the North Portico for their farewells and departure. The Warrens know that they are to depart after the entertainment.

You and Mrs. Nixon will then proceed upstairs for the evening.

THE WHITE HOUSE NEWS PHOTOGRAPHERS'
ASSOCIATION MEETING

SHERATON-PARK HOTEL

THURSDAY, APRIL 24, 1969

THE PRESIDENT:

At 8:50 p. m. you will depart the White House by motorcade arriving at the 24th Street Extension Entrance of the Sheraton-Park Hotel at approximately 8:58 p. m. You will be escorted to a room immediately adjacent to the Sheraton Hall where you will be met by Mr. Charles Shutt, Dinner Chairman and outgoing President of the Association, Mr. Stanley Stearns, incoming President and Mr. George Tames.

These men will escort you to the entrance of the Hall, Ruffles and Flourishes will be played by the Marine Band, you will be announced and then proceed to the head table as "Hail to the Chief" is played. You will be seated to the left of the podium at the center of the Head Table with Mr. Stearns to your right and Mr. Shutt to your left. The Vice President will be to Mr. Stearns' right and Secretary Rogers will be to Mr. Shutt's left.

NOTE:

Other Head Table guests will include Chief Justice Warren, Justice Marshall, Justice Douglas, Senator Mansfield, Congressman Ford, Mayor Washington, His Excellency Dr. Guillermo Sevilla-Sacasa, Cabinet members and officials of the Association.

NEWS PHOTOGRAPHERS' ASSOCIATION MEETING CONTINUED:

THE PRESIDENT:

At approximately 9:02 p. m. Mr. Stearns and the Vice President will present awards to 13 prize winning photographers. Mr. Stearns will then present several gifts including one for the Vice President. The Vice President will acknowledge the gift and make brief remarks concluding at about 9:20 p. m. when the program will be turned over to Ray Bolger who will act as Master of Ceremonies for one hour and fifteen minutes of entertainment.

NOTE:

Entertainment will be provided by Ray Bolger, Eddie Adams and David Frye.

At the conclusion of the entertainment around 10:35 p. m. Mr. Shutt will invite you to join him at the rostrum. Mr. Shutt will then present to you on behalf of the White House News Photographers a leather bound desk calendar. This will be engraved with the Presidential Seal and the dates that you have held public office. It is recommended that you make brief remarks after acknowledging the gift.

NOTE:

Suggested remarks have been prepared for your use.

Your remarks will be off the record.

There will be approximately 1,400 people in attendance.

At the conclusion of your remarks Mr. Stearns will ask everyone to rise, honors will be rendered and you will be escorted back the same way you came in to the motorcade for return to the White House.

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL AZALEA FESTIVAL

NORFOLK, VIRGINIA

SATURDAY, APRIL 26, 1969

THE PRESIDENT:

At 1:25 p.m. you will board your helicopter at Camp David and fly to Martinsburg, West Virginia, arriving at 1:42 p.m. ~~There you will be joined by the First Lady.~~ You will then transfer to Air Force I arriving at Norfolk Municipal Airport at 2:30 p.m.

You and Mrs. Nixon will depart the airport by motorcade arriving at the Azalea Gardens at approximately 2:35 p.m. The motorcade will ~~stop first to allow Mrs. Nixon to be escorted to her place in the VIP section and then will proceed~~ a short distance to a point behind the stage which will be hidden from public view. You will join Miss Tricia Nixon and her attendants at this time.

At approximately 2:45 p.m. Ruffles and Flourishes and "Hail to the Chief" will be played. This signals the entrance of the Queen and her Court. You will be to your daughter's left and her escort, Lt. Robert Nichol, USN, will be to her right.

You enter by climbing several steps and then proceed to the raised platform maintaining the same positions.

The National Anthem will be played and at its conclusion you will pause while the Color Guard takes up position behind you. An announcer will then announce that you will crown the Queen. At this point you should ask the crown bearer, Miss Dana Dawson, for the crown. She will be directly in front of you and will turn around to present you with it.

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL AZALEA FESTIVAL CON'T:

THE PRESIDENT:

You will step back slightly and pause briefly with the crown suspended over Miss Nixon's head to provide a photographic opportunity. You will then crown your daughter.

After the crowning everyone remains standing while the Mayor of Norfolk, Roy B. Martin, presents your daughter with the city mace. He will then deliver brief remarks. Miss Nixon will speak next followed by you.

NOTE

Suggested remarks have been prepared for your use.

There will be full press coverage.

BACKGROUND:

--- The International Azalea Festival is sponsored by the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the City of Norfolk as a tribute to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

--- The Festival was conceived in 1954 and your daughter is Queen Azalea XVI

--- Each year's Azalea Queen is chosen from the ranks of young women whose fathers are prominent government or military leaders, and her selection is a tribute to her charm, poise and personality. She is attended by 14 International Azalea Princesses similarly selected.

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL AZALEA FESTIVAL CON'T:

THE PRESIDENT:

At the conclusion of your remarks the music will start and you will take your daughter's arm and promenade to the right. Miss Nixon's escort remains behind. When you reach the end of the line of Princesses, you will be met by Colonel Coffey who will escort you to the VIP section where you will be seated ~~with Mrs. Nixon~~ for the balance of the ceremony. Your daughter remains behind on the stage.

Those seated in the VIP section will include:

Governor and Mrs. Godwin
Mayor and Mrs. Martin
Admiral and Mrs. Holmes
Congressman and Mrs. Whitehurst
Admiral and Mrs. Dempsey

NOTE:

Governor and Mrs. Godwin extended you and Mrs. Nixon an invitation to stop in and see them in Richmond on your way to or from the Festival. This invitation was regretted.

When the ceremony is over at approximately 3:25 p. m., you ~~and Mrs. Nixon~~ will be escorted to a point behind the stage where you will meet your daughter.

NOTE:

There will be photo coverage.

You ~~and Mrs. Nixon~~ will then depart for the airport by motorcade and board Air Force I for the return flight. You will touch down at Andrews Air Force Base at approximately 4:15 p. m. Return to the White House will be by helicopter and you ~~and Mrs. Nixon~~ will arrive about 4:35 p. m.

DINNER HONORING DUKE ELLINGTON

THE WHITE HOUSE

TUESDAY, APRIL 29, 1969

THE PRESIDENT:

At 7:50 p.m. Duke Ellington and his sister, Miss Ruth Ellington and The Vice President and Mrs. Agnew will be escorted to the Yellow Oval Room to join you and the First Lady for approximately 15 minutes.

The Vice President and Mrs. Agnew will be escorted downstairs first and then at 8:05 p.m. you and Mrs. Nixon followed by the Ellingtons will be escorted from the Family Quarters. You will descend the Grand Staircase pausing two steps from the lower landing. The Ellingtons will join you on this step for a brief photo session.

Your dinner guests numbering about 90 will be assembled in the East Room where mixed drinks and champagne will be served.

The dress is black tie with long dresses for the ladies.

After the photographs you will proceed to the carpet in the Grand Hall and pause facing the East Room. Ruffles and Flourishes will be played by the Marine Band and you and your party will be announced. As "Hail to the Chief" is played you will move into the East Room and to your right forming a receiving line in front of the prepositioned Color Guard facing the east wall.

THE PRESIDENT:

Your guests will be presented to you by a social aide. When the receiving line is nearly completed the social aides will begin to guide your guests out of the East Room and through the Green Room and Grand Hall to their places in the State Dining Room. When you have greeted the last of your guests, you and your party will in turn be escorted through the Grand Hall to your places in the State Dining Room.

Music during the dinner will be provided by the Strolling Strings.

It is recommended that you make very briefly a toast as the dinner draws to a close. (Your principal remarks are to be delivered in the East Room prior to the commencement of the entertainment).

NOTE:

Suggested remarks have been prepared for your use and are attached.

Prior to the end of the dinner your after dinner guests, numbering about 100, will be escorted to the Green and Blue Rooms where coffee, liqueurs and cigars will be served. Your dinner guests will be similarly served in the Red and Blue Rooms at the conclusion of the dinner.

On leaving the State Dining Room you and Mrs. Nixon and the Ellingtons will be escorted through the Grand Hall to a point just outside the East Room where you will form a receiving line. A social aide will then present your after dinner guests to you as they are guided out of the Blue Room and into the East Room.

THE PRESIDENT:

At approximately 10:20 p. m. you will enter the East Room where your other guests will have already been seated.

You will make brief welcoming remarks and then present Duke Ellington with the first Presidential Medal of Freedom of your Presidency. The Medal will be inscribed with the recipient's name and the date. It is recommended that you also read the Citation that accompanies the Medal.

NOTE:

Suggested remarks are attached. The Citation will be presented to you by your military aide at the appropriate moment.

A single stand-up microphone will be provided for your use.

There will be pool press coverage as well as a special filming and recording for the United States Information Agency.

Musical Entertainment will be provided by the following performers and will be of approximately one hour's duration:

Mr. Gerry Mulligan
Mr. Paul Desmond
Mr. Clark Terry
Mr. J. J. Johnson

DINNER HONORING DUKE ELLINGTON CONTINUED:

THE PRESIDENT:

ENTERTAINERS CONTINUED:

Mr. Urie Green	Mr. William Berry
Mr. James Hall	Mr. Hank Jones
Mr. Milton Hinton	Mr. Louis Bellson
Miss Mary Mayo (Singer)	Mr. Joseph Williams (Singer)
Mr. Dave Brubeck	Mr. William Taylor

NOTE:

Mr. Willis Conover, the voice of the Voice of America, will introduce the numbers during the entertainment.

At the conclusion of the entertainment it is recommended that you, Mrs. Nixon and Duke Ellington rise and go forward to thank the performers. At this time it is suggested that you ask Duke Ellington to play a number (he has been preparing a special number for this evening) and then return to your seats. When the Ellington performance is over you and the First Lady will escort the Ellingtons, followed by your guests into the Grand Hall where mixed drinks and champagne will be served. The Marine Band will provide music and after 5 to 10 minutes guest musicians will be asked in an informal "jam session," to join the band.

Three choices are recommended for your consideration at this time:

1. to say goodnight to the Ellingtons (inviting them to stay on) and return to the Family Quarters.
2. to stay with your guests for part of the "jam session" and then retire to the Family Quarters.
3. to stay with your guests until the end of the "jam session." In this case it is suggested that you and Mrs. Nixon escort the Ellingtons to the North Portico for departure and then retire to the Family Quarters.
