Notice to the Ladies.
MAGNOLIA CHRISMADORA.
TO whiten, soften and smooth the Hands. Every composition hitherto invented for the preservation of the beauty of the present day, has left something to be desired, and has failed to satisfy in all respects the wishes of the fair sex.
The Manufacturers of the Magnolia Chrismadora, believe they have discovered in the Queen of Luxuries flowers, the necessary substances for the preservation of the hands.
This composition possesses the advantages of giving the hands a whiteness, freshness and velvety feel unequalled by any other invention.
It may be equally employed for the nourishment and preservation of the hair, which it softens, while it renders it dandriff.
The Magnolia Chrismadora may be found at the dry coverers, NORMANDIN & BROTHERS, corner Royal and Maine streets and M. Maubert, 326 Royal st. m26

No. 21,874. The cause and evidence herein submitted, and the court considering that the allegations of the petition are fully born out by the evidence offered, it is adjudged and decreed that judgment be entered in favor of a separation of goods and property between the plaintiff Marie Therese Barabino, and the defendant, Louis Auguste Chauchon, with costs, and that the said defendant pay to the plaintiff three thousand four hundred and thirty three dollars and fourteen cents, with legal interest from the 7th December, 1841, till paid, and that the said wife's privileges and mortgage accorded by law for the restitution of dotal rights.
Judgment rendered 23d December, 1842, signed 4th January, 1843.
(Signed) A M BUCHANAN, Judge.
In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court at the city of New Orleans, on this 8th day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty three, and in the sixty seventh year of the independence of the United States.
Signed, W. F. WAGNER, Dep. Clerk.
