I, the undersigned, inform the public that I shall not pay any debts contracted in my name to the amount of one hundred and fifty dollars or more, by the order of Mr. Joseph Vinet, on 20th March 1846, payable six months after date, signed as partner by Mr. V. Fiedler, Notary Public, in consequence of his having commenced a suit in my name for sale for which said note was drawn, and so have it declared null and void. G. PRESCHE.

New Orleans, August 24th 1846. n24

MESSRS. P. BLANCARD and ACHILLE MOLION, Surgeon Dentists of the Faculty of Paris and New Orleans, have the honor to inform their friends, that since the 1st of June, they have united their offices No 44 Royal street, between Bienville and Customhouse (residence of Dr. Louis.)

The engagements they are under towards various institutions and the Convent of this city, to which they are attached, compel them to absent themselves nearly days in the course of the months. Therefore, to overcome the inconvenience it would cause their patients, as well on their own accounts as on account of their numerous clients, in order that one of the two may be always in town, ready to receive all persons who may honor them with their confidence. The superiority of their work, and the care and promptitude exhibited by them, induce them to hope for a continuance of the patronage of the public. 1Y

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

HAVING been appointed Recorder of Births and Deaths for the Parish and City of Orleans, I request the citizens of the above and parish generally to conform themselves to the dispositions of the following act:

Act approved March 6, 1819

Sec. 1. After the passage of this act, the birth of every free child in the parish and city of Orleans, shall be declared thereon to the recorder of births, who is hereby made confidentially to the third section of the act to which this is a supplement; and every person offending against the provisions of the said section shall pay a fine not exceeding ten dollars and not less than five dollars, half of which shall be for the benefit of the State and the other half for the benefit of the informer.

Sec. 2. The death of every free person within the parish of Orleans, shall be declared thereon within the city of the declarant, or if he be absent, the nearest relation of the deceased. If they are present, and in case of absence, by the testamentary executor, if there is one, if none, by the owner or tenant of the house in which the individual will have died; and every person offending against the provisions of the standard, shall be fined in a sum not exceed ing ten dollars, nor less than five dollars.

She undersigned will be under the painful necessity of prosecuting all persons neglecting or refusing to conform themselves to the clauses of the above act
