

NEW-ORLEANS VS. BEE.

BY J. L. BELLIN & MAGINE.

"THEIR INNOCENCE AND PUBLICITY CERTAIN."

N. O., FEB. 12.—
WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEB. 10, 1839.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE U. S. VICE-SECR.

HEAGY CLAY OF KENTUCKY.

Subject to the decision of a National Convention.

By the arrival of the ship "Rey from Hay," we have received our news from Paris to the West December last, bringing news from France three days later than those received through the English packet at New York.

At the chamber of deputies on the 3d December Mr. Dupuy was re-elected president. M. Cudras was elected 3d vice-president, and M. Desnoyer, 4th. Duglas, Dubet and Bignon were also elected.

A complaint is shortly to be discussed in the legislature in which the author of "M. Eugene," proposes to restrain the excesses of journalism, by giving the public journals from the stamp and post office tax, in consideration of half their columns being devoted to the interests of article which the government will furnish, and 3d by compelling the different writers in the unprinted papers, to defend their article which the opposition press shall be obliged to publish.

At Paris, more than 10,000 bricklayers were thrown out of employment on account of the suspension of the works by the extreme cold.

A protest of the president of the "Nouvelles" from Algiers stated that the spirit of the offerings of the troops from inland provinces had been sent to Paris. Men and horses were carried off and devoured by the torrent of the river Haoua, which inundated the banks.

The small body of troops left Constantine for Algiers. When they reached the frontier it was learned that they would receive no supplies in their progress from the hostility of the Arabs in the part of the country. At Biskra the force of the army had suffered great losses from this cause.

The country east of Algiers had undergone severe trials, and others equally severe in the west.

A letter from Algiers dated the 14th says—
