We transfer the following notice of the City Treasurer from our advertising columns, where it has been standing for nearly twenty days, without having produced the desired effect. We wish all parties interested to understand that the City Treasurer has no liberty to act in the matter as he might please; the licenses must be paid in the treasury by the 1st February next; all unpaid licenses must, and will, on that day, be handed over to the Assistant City Attorney, whose duty it is to institute forthwith proceedings for their collection by due process of law.

TO THE PUBLIC.

TREASURER'S DEPARTMENT, }
December 16, 1856. }

The Treasurer would respectfully call the attention of the public to the following Sections of the new city Charter, as approved March 20, 1856:

Section 113. Be it further enacted, &c., That all taxes commonly known as licenses, laid by the Common Council on professions, callings, and other business, and on carriages, hacks, drays, and other vehicles used in the city of New Orleans, shall be payable at the office of the City Treasurer, from the 1st to the last of January, inclusive, of each year. And if any tax, commonly known as a license, laid as aforesaid, shall not have been paid by the person liable therefor on or before the 31st day of January in each and every year, the City of New Orleans, upon a default made by any officer of said City, or by any citizen of said City, that said tax, commonly known as a license, has not been paid by the person liable therefor, shall have a lien, in the nature of a vessel privilege, upon the personal property of said person in default, and on application made a writ of provisional seizure shall issue out of any Court of competent jurisdiction, in favor of said City and against said property; and in case judgment is rendered in favor of said City, said property, so provisionally seized, shall be sold in satisfaction of said tax.

Section 116. And further, it shall be the duty of said Treasurer to hand over to the Assistant City Attorney all bills for fines, dues or amounts due, owned and intended by Section 105, whenever the same shall accrue, or be exigible by the provisions of this Act, and the said Assistant Attorney shall forthwith institute proceedings in Courts of competent jurisdiction in the several parishes where said fines, licenses, fines or penalties shall have accrued.

I would thus avert the expenses of suit for the Treasurer would not demand prompt attention to the matter.

ADAM GIFFEN, Treasurer.

LOSS OF THE STEAMER C. HAYS.—We are informed by the officers of the C. Hays, who arrived here last night on the Julia, that on the 7th inst., when about thirty-seven miles below Trinity, and opposite Mrs. Miller's plantation, on Black River, in rounding to to make a landing, about 11.30 P. M., struck on a snag and sank to her hurricane roof. The boat will be a total loss; most of her cargo will be saved. She had on at the time 1,075 bales cotton and 1,597 sacks cotton seed. There were about 600 bales saved up to the time they left. The steamer Julia brought down 300 bales cotton, and the officers and crew of the C. Hays. No lives lost.

MAILS FOR PUNTA ARENAS, LA UNION, ACAJUTLA AND SAN JOSE DE GUATEMALA (CENTRAL AMERICA).—We are requested, says the Washington Union, to give notice that a monthly mail will hereafter be made up at the New York and New Orleans post-offices for Punta Arenas, La Union, Acajutla, and San Jose de Guatemala (Central America) for dispatch by the Costa Rica mail steamers of the 5th of each month from those ports. Said mail, on its arrival at Panama, will be immediately forwarded thence to its destination by the French steamer Columbus, belonging to the Panama Railroad Company, which vessel will sail monthly between Panama and those ports.

The rate of United States postage is ten cents when the distance from mailing office is not over 2,500 miles, and 20 cents when the distance is over 2,500 miles; prepayment compulsory.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.—The steamer Red Wing, which arrived yesterday morning from Fort Smith, brought down Company M of the 1st Regiment of Dragoons, 3d Artillery, numbering in all 108 men—under command of Capt. Lindrum and Lieutenants Bell, Reno, Lee and Edwards, Assistant Surgeon Beasley. They come from Fort Chadbourne, and are en route for Fortress Monroe.

THE N. Y. York Tribune is strongly opposed to a repeal of the duty on sugar, is in favor of the protection of the article as a home production, and thinks that the effect of the duty on foreign sugar will ultimately cheapen the domestic product.

TEXAS.

By the arrival of the steamship Atlantic we have received files of Texas papers to the 3d instant. They contain very little of interest.

The Galveston Gazette says that Josiah Jordan has abandoned French mesne lands into Rapides county, at an expense of $500.

The Brenham Item says: "Negro men let by hire, this fall, for the year, at from $100 to $125. Field hands, ad. Women from $80 to $90. What! any one suppose these days of hard times?"

Two negroes were executed, on Christmas eve, at Columbia, Texas. True Issue, in the Little Rock Advocate, between Mr. John Hardin and a young man by the name of Ryan, in Mr. Hardin received two very severe cuts in a knife; we are gratified to learn that the wounds are not dangerous, and rapidly recovering. Ryan awaits his trial at the next session of the District Court.

The steamboat Island City, on her way down from Houston, when coming into our city on the morning, ran afoul of a vessel moored to the bank on account of her having washed up and down the river, and the passengers were somewhat alarmed, supposing the boats were about to collide. The damage done was slight, consisting in the breaking of the vessel had no lights, and also to the Island City a cotton mark.—Galveston News.

AN AFFRAY OCCURRED IN AVOYELLES PARISH, near the Central Organ, published in Marksville, in Avoyelles Parish, the parties being a heavily built mulatto woman, perpetrator of the affray, and a white girl, aged 12 years, daughter of a widow woman named Mrs. Bourabe, by two negro men belonging to Mr. E. Rosadon, of that parish.—The white girl died on the 24th ult., leaving her daughter at home with a younger sister in charge of an old negro. At about 12 o'clock the villains came, dragged her into the yard, and successively violated her person. Her screams roused a neighbor, who came up too late to render any assistance. She was found lying on the ground, severely from the outrage. In her struggles she tore an ear-ring from one of the negroes, and the other left his hat, by which they were both subsequently identified.

They were protected from the law, and finally, and hanged on Monday last.

The Sugar Planter has the following:

Crops on this Lafourche.—A day or two since, H. W. Walsh, Esq., and Col. Thomas Moore, of Assumption, came in the Mississippi river, opposite the plantation of Col. Hickey, weighing the first sugar sent from the Bayou Lafourche, of this place, and we were one of the happy few who joined him yesterday in eating the delicacy. As this is unusual in this article, we will state for information of planters on the Bayou, the cook prepared it. It was put in her saucepan at 7 o'clock, taken out at 10, and then placed in the pot and boiled till first boiling claimed. We have no recollection of ever having eaten a greater delicacy; it was delicious. As a special favor, please to let that should you kill a beaver, the only regret at the table was expressed by Mr. H——, and that was, "he did not have a fish-hook with him to eat it."

DEATH OF A CLERICAL MISER.—The Rev. Henry Thompson, M. A., who recently died at Retford, England, was the last of a family which lived in the neighborhood for two hundred years.

He was penurious and eccentric. Although possessed of ample means, he never kept any domestic servant, and seldom permitted any fire in the house. His shoes, which he wore on Sundays, was exceedingly mean in appearance. He used to go unshaved, unwashed, for a week together, and he never had his own shoes cleaned since the year 1814. About three pounds of bacon, one loaf or two of bread, and half a pint of beer, served him and his wife for a week. Dickenson continued in tolerable health up to Sunday, the 16th, when his friends observed much difficulty in the delivery of his duty in the pulpit. In the morning of that day he delivered an unusually long discourse, but in the afternoon he preached for the last time, taking for his text the 15th chapter of St. Luke, 15, "Accounts that the Lord is merciful and with marked emphasis he dwelt upon the word "salvation." On leaving the church he said that he desired to be assisted to the rectory house by his parishioners, who on their arrival as soon as he got to his own door. In consequence of this indisposition the church was closed for two afterwards, but he preached twice at the rectory, but Mr. Dickenson declined their help, and it was only by a kind of gentle compulsion that they succeeded in getting into the house. Mrs. Dickenson, who is in a delicate state of mind and body, at once refused to open the door, but was ultimately induced to admit one or two persons.

After this her husband in a deplorable state of prostration, arising from the sheer want of the necessaries of life, according to the opinion of the medical men. He sank into a state of syncope, and died about one o'clock on the morning of the 16th.

A touching thing these indications of poverty and misery. It has been ascertained that Mr. Dickenson died worth between £40,000 and £50,000, the whole of which he has bequeathed to his wife. He was also considered a wealthy landlord, and the poor of West Retford have not unfrequently been benefited by his charities.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, January 5th.—SENATE.—Mr. Mason, of Virginia, acted in the place of Mr. Bright as President pro tem. of the Senate, the latter being absent from the city.

Mr. Cass offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling on the Secretary of War for further information respecting the St. Clair Flats, and asking what amount, if any, additional appropriation will be required for the said work.

The bill for the settlement of the pay of officers of the revolutionary army, their widows and children, was then taken up.

Mr. Seward made a long speech in support of that measure, quoting largely from the letters of Washington to show the circumstances attending the original creation and drawing. He stress the circumstance that the amount involved in the bill, being about two and a half millions of dollars, was really due.

Mr. Pugh opposed the bill as the commencement of a system of retrenchment.

No final action was taken on the measure.

Mr. Butler, from the Committee on the Judiciary, made a report against the right of Mr. Durkin to a seat in the Senate from the State of Iowa.

The Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE.—An ineffectual motion to enable the Committee of Ways and Means reports for reference only, was made.

On motion of Mr. Volk, a resolution was adopted requesting the President of the United States to inform the House by what authority he employs an government architect for designing and erecting all public buildings, and paying him a salary of $3,000 per annum, and appointing two assistant draughtsmen at $1,400 each, and the superintendent of military engineers.

Mr. Quitman vainly strove to report a bill increasing the pay of officers of the army.

Mr. Walbridge desired a suspension of the rules, in order to enable him to introduce a resolution making the subject of the Pacific railroad the special order for the 14th of January.

The motion did not prevail—yeas 70, nays 85; a two-third vote being necessary for that purpose.

After other business of a general import, the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Senate.—The Senate proceeded to the election of a President pro tempore, and Mr. Mason was conceded—receiving 30 votes. Mr. Foot received 14. Mr. Mallet, 1; blank, 2. The low contested election case was debated, but, without concluding, the Senate adjourned.

In the House, Mr. Boyce gave notice of an amendment he intends to offer to the Tariff bill. Bill to go through the mill after January, 1857, all goods, wares and merchandize, or other products, which, under the existing tariff, pay ad valorem duties, shall continue to be admitted at that rate; and that the said duties shall be included in the same schedules.

Mr. Grow would introduce a bill in order effectually to prevent the introduction of spurious liquors sold under cover of the Indian country; referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

The debate on the President's message was continued until the adjournment.

Telegraphic Items.

FROM WASHINGTON.—Washington, Jan. 5.—Mr. Mason, by the request of Mr. Bright, presided over the Senate to-day, but inasmuch as the latter's power to appoint a substitute is limited to one day, and as Mr. Bright will be absent several weeks in Indiana, Mr. Cass will, to-morrow, be elected President pro tem.

Secretary Guthrie has replied to the inquiry of the House, asking to be informed of the reasons for the dismissal of clerks of that body the extra compensation hereto-fore voted. He agrees with Mr. Whittlesey, that neither House of Congress could lawfully increase the compensation of officers whose salaries are fixed by law, without the concurrence of the other House and the President, which he says is not the fact in the case.

SYMPATHY FOR THE DEATH OF MRS. DANIELS.—Washington, Jan. 5.—The United States Supreme Court, sympathizing with Judge Daniels in his severe domestic affliction, and as the fine rail to his wife will take place to-morrow, adjourned until Wednesday.

The Court of Claims also observed a similar mark of respect.

The United States Land office has withdrawn from sale at once two million additional acres of land in Louisiana, which were found to fall within the grant made to the New Orleans, Opelousas and Great Western Railroad, between Opelousas and the Sabine river, on the Texas State line.

CONVICTION OF TUCKERMAN, THE EASTERN RAILROAD DEFALCATOR.—Boston, Jan. 4.—Last night, after about an hour's deliberation, the jury in the case of Wm. S. Tuckerman, charged with defrauding the Eastern Railroad Corporation, rendered a verdict of guilty. Hon. Rufus Choate, counsel for the defendant, immediately filed a bill of exceptions to the rulings of the trial, which will be argued before the final disposition of the case. Tuckerman remains at large on bail. The present verdict was for appropriating $5,000. Numerous other indictments are pending against him.

ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE.—Springfield, Jan. 5. The Illinois Legislature met to-day, when the Democrats forcibly expelled Mr. Bridges, the Republican Clerk of the last House, whilst he was calling the roll, and organized finally by the election of Samuel Holmes, Democrat, as Speaker, and Mr. Leib, Democrat, Clerk.

HON. MR. SUMNER'S HEALTH.—Boston, Jan. 5.—The Chronicle of to-day contains a statement which says that Mr. Sumner will not leave for Washington, as he intended, owing to the orders of his physicians.

NEW YORK BANK STATEMENT.—New York, Jan. 5.—The weekly statement of the city banks show increases as follows: Loans, $550,000; Specie, $2,500,000; Circulation, $225,000; Deposits, $8,500,000.

NAVAL INTELLIGENCE.—New York, Jan. 5.—The United States sloop of war St. Louis was put into commission on the 4th of November—all well.

DISPATCHES FROM GOV. GRAHAM.—New York, Jan. 5.—Mr. E. Hoagland, of Kansas, passed through this city, en route for Washington, with dispatches from Gov. Geary.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.—Albany, Jan. 6.—The Legislature met at noon to-day and organized by choosing Dewitt C. Littlejohn for Speaker of the Assembly. Governor King's message states the receipts of the year to be nearly $18,000,000, and the expenditures nearly $15,000,000, leaving a balance in the Treasury of upwards of 3,000,000. The Canal debt is upwards of $22,000,000. The receipts of the year were $2,750,000. The Banking system is in a healthy condition.—The Governor declares the imputations on the Republicans in the Presidential message to be wholly groundless, and gives at length the views of the Republicans on the great questions of the day.—He alludes to the outrages which have been committed in Kansas. The message, on the whole, is a very able document.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.—Harrisburg, Jan. 6.—J. L. Getz has been elected Speaker of the House. 26th ballot. The Senate meets this afternoon. The Democrats have nominated William Williams, and the Republicans David Taggart, for President of the Senate.

ARRIVAL OF TWO FUGITIVE SLAVES IN BOSTON.—We are informed that two fugitives, who had succeeded in making their escape from their masters in the Slough, have arrived in this city the present week. One of the slaves was from Mississippi, and escaped in a vessel. He arrived here night before last, and states that yesterday he saw his master, accompanied by a well known slave-catcher, in the streets of our city. Once before, the fugitive states, he made an attempt to escape, but was then captured and carried back, when his master told him if he was ever caught again in the act of running off, he should be shot. The other fugitive was from the State of Virginia, and made his escape by land. The Vigilance Committee of the city immediately took prompt and effectual measures to put them in a place of safety, and they are now beyond the reach of their pursuers.—Boston Traveller.

From France.

We have received by the Atlantic Mowrer, ville papers to the 31st ult. They contain news from Mexico one or two days later than any brought here direct. The Brownsville Flag says:

It seems, from the Siglo, of the 6th, that the insurgents at Puebla have failed to comply with the articles of capitulation. That paper, under head of "Last Hour," says: "We have just learned that the insurgents, having failed to comply with the terms of capitulation, by not surrendering their arms at the points indicated in the second article of the treaty, the general-in-chief has declared the same to be null and of no value, ordering the disabled to surrender their arms immediately, and that those who fail to comply with the order are judged as conspirators, and punished with all the rigor of the law."

Gen. Uraga has addressed a letter to his government, in which he says that he learns from the papers—he is in New York—that his country is menaced by the fleets of Spain and England, and he asks to be allowed to return, assume his rank in the army, and lend his services in defense of his country. The Siglo speaks favorably of Gen. Uraga, and congratulates him upon his patriotic request to the acts of others now burning in the Mexican record, when the country is menaced by a foreign enemy.

We learn from another source, which we deem reliable, that some of the leaders of the Puebla insurrechon have fled to San Luis Potosi, got up a pronunciamento there, and they have taken Gen. Rosas Landa and Echagaray both prisoners—the former being held by his own command. It is said that Gen. Vidaurri is to march from Monterey against San Luis. The government was fortunate in reconciling Vidaurri. His services will be found almost indispensable at the present crisis. We also learn that there has been one or two arrests in our sister city, Matamoras, recently, but if we are to believe the babblings of Madam Rumor, the city of the favorite hobby of "Religion y Fueros" is not very popular on this frontier. The people are faithful to their government, and by deeds, which is better than words, have shown their determination to maintain it. We are told that the commandant of Matamoras, in consideration of long friendship, refrained from rigorous punishment, and in pardoning both parties that they could, to use an English saying, "leave their country for their country's good," which they did, and are now enjoying the temporary hospitality of our city.

Commercial affairs seem to be brightening. Orders, we learn, have been received at Matamoras for all the goods that may be ready to draw.

It is but a few days ago that we stated the fact of the Alcalde Lodge selling the $5,000 prize lottery, and now announces that in Saturday's drawing the capital prize of $40,000—No 20,116—was won by persons in this city. The ticket was sold at Gladden's cigar store, and the prize will be paid this morning by the agents of the Alabama Lottery. Only a few weeks we are called on to publish the fact of prizes sold here, and we should judge by the time the managers of the Alabama lottery find that New Orleans is a long way short of them.

The Anglo-Persian Difficulty.

Although precise facts are not fully aware of the origin of the war now declared by England against Persia, we publish the subjoined full explanation from the Charleston Courier:

It would really seem as though the Bible prophecy, "there shall be wars and rumors of wars," especially applied to Europe, for no sooner is a peace concluded upon by a number of nations than a war, or rumor of war, same cause questions as to interpretations of the terms of that peace, and with a little outside difficulty in the second article of the treaty, they commence another war. England and Russia now stand in the position of two belligerent individuals, who have partywise secured all their public supporters in a general conference of brethren, but now in private they have a duel on their own account, and each is determined to fight it out to the bitter end. The ground for the respective meeting of the two duelists, Messrs. Bear and Bull, is on the one hand the Caspian Sea shore, and on the other that of the Persian Gulf. During the fight, Herat stands at one side, as a perfectly disinterested spectator, though it is the ultimate prize of the contest. Herat, being the owner at present, it cares but little what it may belong to in future. Persia also received a sample from Russia of the sort of stores and ammunition of war that she will be the principal sufferer in the end.

The ostensible object of this war, waged by England upon Persia, is to punish the Persians for besieging the independent city of Herat, in West Afghanistan, in violation of treaty obligations. Afghanistan is divided into three independent chieftains. Herat, Cabool, (or Cabul) and Kandahar. The city of Herat is the fortified capital of the chieftainship of that name, containing about 40,000 inhabitants. Its situation makes it the key to the western Indies. The city originally belonged to Persia, and was the capital of that empire founded by Tamerlane. In 1715 the Afghans captured it. The Persians recovered it in 1731, and in 1747 it was again taken by the Afghans. Persia has always desired to regain its possession of the city, and for that purpose made an attempt in 1838, but was defeated, and again in 1856—when, September 1st, the city of Herat capitulated to the Persians.

But if the interest of the British possessions in the East indicates that the independence of the three chieftains of Afghanistan must be maintained, they by no means desire to interfere between the Caspian and Persia. They should come into the possession of Herat, it is possible that the Czar, on the nearest European neighbor, in the attainment of importance in the Eastern hemisphere which would jeopardize the British reign in India. By treaty concluded in January, 1853, between England and Persia, the latter relinquished all claim of allegiance upon the people of Herat, and agreed never to send troops into that district unless attacked by a foreign power, or from Kandahar, or Cabulistan, or in case of every kind for Fever Sores, Ulcers, Itch, Scald Head, Nettle Rash, Sore Nipples, (recommended by nurses,) Whitlows, Nose, Festers, Fine Rims, Spider Stings, Frozen Limbs, Salt Rheum, Scurvy, Sore and Cracked Lips, Sore Nose, Warts and Fleah Worms, it is a most valuable remedy and cure, which can be assured to by thousands who have used it in the city of Boston and vicinity for the last thirty years. In no instance will it fail to do an injury, or interfere with a physician's prescriptions. It is made from the purest materials, from a recipe brought from Russia—of articles growing in that country—and the Proprietors have letters from all classes, Clergymen, Physicians, Sea Captains, Nurses, and others who have used it for themselves, and recommended it to others. REDDING'S RUSSIA SALVE is put in large tin boxes, stamped on the cover, with a picture of a horse and a disabled soldier, which picture is also engraved on the wrapper. Price, 25 cents a box.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

AMUSEMENTS.—Mrs. Cherri appears at Crisp's Gaiety Theatre this evening in the excellent comedy of "The Belle's Stratagem;" Mlle Kaintrine in a dance, and Thayer, Davis and Davidge in the thrilling drama of "The Rake's Progress." Mrs. Crisp is announced for a complimentary benefit to-morrow.

At the St. Charles Theatre, Bouvicault and Miss Agnes Robertson both appear, the former with Eagle and Bowers, in the drama of "The Phantom," and the latter with Bowers and Miss Mary Shaw, in the beautiful fairy entertainment of "The Invisible Prince." Bowers also plays in one of his amusing characters, in the farce entitled "Phenomenon in a Smock Frock."

The opera of "Speculum," by Verdi, will be rendered at the Orleans Theatre, with the same power as at first cast before.

The celebrated Campbell Minstrels, under Matt Peel's direction, continue their concerts, and burlesques at the Armory Hall, on Camp street, where, we notice, they are nightly drawing crowded houses.

The Amphitheatre and Museum of Spalding & Rogers, on St. Charles street, is also attracting crowded houses every evening, with the numerous wonderful curiosities of one department, and the unrivaled circus performances in the other.

At Vannicki's Museum, No 107 St. Charles street, the curious may be gratified at all hours by novel objects on exhibition, among them the remarkably pugnacious gnome of only 518 pounds weight.

MLLE ROSA AT THE CIRCUS.—This beautiful equestrienne, of whom we have heard such extravagant descriptions in our exchanges, and who is said to be the best horsewoman who has ever appeared in America, did not appear at the Amphitheatre last night, in consequence of detention of the cars at Morgancity, on her way to New Orleans.—She will appear, however, to-morrow night.

COLD.—We have had very cold and blustering weather for the past forty eight hours, during which strong, biting blasts have given us decidedly unpleasant breathings of what must have been Kane's icy experiences in the regions of the Great Northern Bear.

The following are the numbers that drew capital prizes in Class M, Alabama Lottery, drawn at Mobile January 10th:

No. 20,116 drew		$40,000
13,356	"	12,000
7,013	"	8,000
814	"	5,000
14,329	"	2,000
6,519	"	1,000

All numbers where the last figure is a 6, are entitled to $40, in addition to any other prize they may draw.

It is but a few days ago that we stated the fact of the Alcalde Lodge selling the $5,000 prize here—and now we announce that in Saturday's drawing the capital prize of $40,000—No 20,116—was won by persons in this city. The ticket was sold at Gladden's cigar store, and the prize will be paid this morning by the agents of the Alabama Lottery. Only a few weeks we are called on to publish the fact of prizes sold here, and we should judge by the time the managers of the Alabama lottery find that New Orleans is a long way short of them.

BEER SALOON.—We would call attention to the superior quality of the excellent beer kept at the saloon of Mr Charles Wenz, at No 41 Orleans street. His malt liquors are of the best quality, and his Larder also good.

Mace, who has recently been employed as a clerk in Mr. Hauser's store, on Camp street, was knocked down and trampled upon by two drunken Irishmen on Saturday evening, by a bale of cotton which was being rolled against him. He was taken to his residence, and is under surgical treatment.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.—Judge J. B. Robertson.—A motion was made for Burns, Ross, Soria, Gurley, Fellows, Culbiane, and one Soto of every kind for Fever Sores, Ulcers, Itch, Scald Head, Nettle Rash, Sore Nipples, (recommended by nurses,) Whitlows, Nose, Festers, Fine Rims, Spider Stings, Frozen Limbs, Salt Rheum, Scurvy, Sore and Cracked Lips, Sore Nose, Warts and Fleah Wounds, it is a most valuable remedy and cure, which can be assured to by thousands who have used it in the city of Boston and vicinity for the last thirty years. In no instance will it fail to do an injury, or interfere with a physician's prescriptions. It is made from the purest materials, from a recipe brought from Russia—of articles growing in that country—and the Proprietors have letters from all classes, Clergymen, Physicians, Sea Captains, Nurses, and others who have used it for themselves, and recommended it to others. REDDING'S RUSSIA SALVE is put in large tin boxes, stamped on the cover, with a picture of a horse and a disabled soldier, which picture is also engraved on the wrapper. Price, 25 cents a box.

GAIETY THEATRE.

New Orleans January 13, 1857.

Ladies and Gentlemen of the Gaiety Company:

Your flattering note, tendering me a complimentary benefit, is before me. I scarcely know how to thank you for your compliment so unexpected, and, I may say, so unmerited. Believe me, I shall ever gratefully cherish the memory of the distinguished manifestation of kindness and regard which who is proud to rank herself a member of your noble profession; and whose feeble efforts to contribute to the edification and amusement of the people of New Orleans, have called forth such spontaneous and kind sentiments of regard and esteem from those with whom I am daily associated in the realm of the drama.

Permit me, ladies and gentlemen, to name WEDNESDAY EVENING, the 14th inst., as most convenient for the benefit to me.

I am, gratefully, yours,

ELIZA CRISP.

Well Recommended.

ON the morning of the 10th inst., about 9 o'clock, a young COLORED LADY, named P. E., left her residence, and has not been heard of since. She was dressed in a brown calico frock, heavy woolen plaid shawl, and a straw bonnet, trimmed with blue ribbon. She is 23 years old, of medium height, black hair, light complexion, fresh, ruddy countenance; one of her upper front teeth is out, her right arm is paralyzed.

Her husband and parents are greatly afflicted, and call humanity to aid them in search of her. She has frequently left the premises, but has always returned, as there is no doubt she has in this city. Her deportment of mind is not able to state the place of her abode.

Any information about her left at 99 CHARTRES STREET will be thankfully received and liberally rewarded. jan13 1t
