

JTF-GTMO Assessment Afghanistan/Pakistan Detainee's

29 March 2004

ISN: US9AF-000970DP

Health Assessment: ISN 970 has a history of the excision of a right ankle ganglion cyst, and mild intermittent asthma. He is currently in good health.

Background and Capture Data: US forces arrested detainee outside of his house in Paiwairza Village on 11 February 2003. Detainee heard an explosion near his house and went to look claims his son was injured from the bombs and when the detainee was walking his son back home to take care of his wounds US forces detained him. Detainee stated the Hazara linguist who translated to the US patrol threatened his son to say that the detainee had hidden an AK-47 and was hiding 20-armed men with AK According to reports, there was a 48-hour firefight between US Forces and Taliban right before detainee was captured. Detainee claims that his son

Bagram, AF, Airfield Detention Center on 12 February 2003 before being transported to Guantanamo Bay Cuba on 25 Mar 2003.

Date of Capture: 11 February 2003

Risk Level: Low

Risk Assessment: It appears that the detainee has not participated in hostilities and possesses a low threat to the US, its allies and interests.

Intelligence Value: Low

Exploitation Requirements: Possible information on Taliban and Al-Qaida operations, leadership structure, locations of proposed targets in the Helmand Province, AF, and possible enemy weapons caches.

Recommendation: Release or Transfer to the Control of Another Country for Continued Detention

CLASSIFIED BY: Multiple Sources

REASON: E.O. 12958 Section 1.5(C)

DECLASSIFY ON: 20290403