SHERIFF'S SALES.

By virtue of an order of sale, to me directed by the Honorable District Court of the First Judicial District of the State of Louisiana, I will offer at public sale, at the city Exchange, St. Louis street, between Chartres and Royal streets, on Thursday fifteenth June, 1843, at 12 o'clock, the following

A certain tract of land situated on the Gentilly Road, in the Parish of Orleans, at about two miles distant from the city of New Orleans, designated as No. 10 on a plan drawn by Capt. Pilie, city surveyor, which said tract is bounded as follows, viz: Below by the property of the succession of the late Jacques Bienvenu, above by a notary public of the city, on the 15th day of May, 1843, which said tract of land measures, according to the plan commonly called Chemin de la Course, forty arpents, fourteen toises and two feet in front, by the depth of forty arpents, more or less, and is bounded on the lower side by the property of Jean Louis Bienvenu, and on the upper side by the property of Jean Louis Bienvenu, which said tract of land was purchased by the said Jean Louis Bienvenu from the succession of the late Jean Baptiste Bienvenu, as appears by the act passed before Jacques Fouchet, a notary public of this city, on the 15th day of May, 1843, which said tract of land is commonly called Chemin de la Course, and is bounded as aforesaid
