The New-Orleans Bee.

No. 851, VOL. VIII.—NEW SERIES. VOL. XXI.—WHOLE No. 3710. { OFFICIAL PAPER OF GENERAL COUNCIL AND FIRST MUNICIPALITY.....NEW-ORLEANS, SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 29, 1848. { MAGNE & WEISS, PROPRIETORS. No. 61 Chartres, and 13 Camp street.

TERMS OF THE BEE.

DAILY PAPER, one year in advance.....$12 00
COUNTRY PAPER, Semi-weekly, four year in advance.....5 00

Each paper will be sent to one address, unless otherwise directed in writing before the first number to that address is issued.

ADVERTISING.—One Dollar for every TEN lines, for each insertion, on the first insertion, and half price for each subsequent insertion. No Advertisement inserted for less than one dollar in each language.

Advertisements not specified as to time will be published one month, and charged accordingly.

Advertisements inserted in alternate will be charged one dollar for every TEN lines, for each language and each insertion.

☞ The Privilege of Annual Advertisers is confined to advertisements strictly within the line of their business, and in extent to one square every other day.

The New-Orleans Daily Bee

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT,

ZACHARY TAYLOR,

OF LOUISIANA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

MILLARD FILLMORE,

OF NEW YORK.

ELECTORAL TICKET.

First District.....JACQUES TOUTANT.
Second District.....J. F. BENJAMIN.
Third District.....MANUEL J. GARCIA.
Fourth District.....C. ADAMS, Jr.
Fifth District.....JOHN MOORE.
Sixth District.....IAS. G. CAMPBELL.

We have no Democratic Ticket, We cannot be represented in favor of General Taylor.

UNITED AS WE ARE, NOW AND FOREVER, AND LOOKING ON WITH CONCENTERED WISDOM AND PRIDE AT WHAT IS TURNED ON THE DESTINY OF THE CITIZENS OF THE OTHER STATES.—Millard Fillmore.

Saturday Morning, July 29, 1848.

Gen. Cass Extraordinary Developements.

The Louisville Journal of the 20th inst. contains an article in which it avows charges of a very serious nature, involving the honesty of Gen. Cass, are preferred against that gentleman, and proof tendered of their substantial correctness. The Journal says that on the year 1836 Gen. Cass, Henry Hubbard, Francis O. J. Smith, Frances Markoe, Jr., and Ramsay McHenry, all then at Washington city, formed themselves into an association under the title of the "Western Land Association," for the purpose of speculating in Western Lands. One of the association certificates has been sent to the Editor, and is published. It is as follows:

WESTERN LAND ASSOCIATION.

Be it known, that Lewis Cass, Henry Hubbard, Francis O. J. Smith, Frances Markoe, Jr., and Ramsay McHenry, on the 28th day of April, A. D. 1836, entered into an association with the combined capital of $220,000 for the purchase and sale of Public Lands, in certain Western States and Territories of the U. S., according to certain articles of agreement being read this, and signed by said parties, and that the general designs of said capital, whereof the aggregate sum specified in the aforesaid written certificate has been paid, the undersigned declare he is a portion of the capital or stock assigned to said ——— in said articles of agreement, and subject to a deduction of one third part of the profits accruing thereon, and to the payment of a proportional portion of the necessary expenses of the committee and Agent of said Association, and to no other.

Be it known, also, that each stock is transferable in whole, or in parts not less than one hundred dollars, by an assignment of the certificate, and Witness my hand and seal of office, this ——— day of ———, 1836.

Secretary. President.

The association, continues the Journal, was formed when Lewis Cass was Secretary of War (his former office of the Governorship, paid in $20,000 and others paid in $10,000, making in all $220,000. The contemplated capital of $250,000 was not obtained. The plan of the association was to enter lands in the West and hold them up for a rise, increase of value. Cass being Secretary of War, and, in virtue of his office, superintending important advantages over private individuals. The Association drew him in the centre of the whole business. He appointed the agent to make the entries of lands, selecting his own agent and referring to the reports of his agents. The Association continued to have the management of the lands, for several years after the purchases were made, and the members of the Association have since expressed the opinion that the profits would probably of their own accord pay a handsome dividend. Nothing satisfactory could be learnt from him. After a consultation with each other, they appointed the Hon. Henry Hubbard one of their own number, and then requested U. S. Senator from New Hampshire, to go, after the next session, and ascertain if Cass and his agent had dealt by them truly and honestly. Mr. Hubbard opened a correspondence with Cass, but finding every effort to get any satisfaction from him, he wrote a final letter informing the Hon. Secretary of War, that he was a rascal, and the Hon. Secretary was quiet and spoke not under the charge. Mr. Hubbard charged him with swindling a associates, and the Hon. Secretary, instead of exhibiting resentment or attempting to prove his innocence, admitted by his silence the justice of the accusation, and even on this basis the Association has not been able to get any satisfaction.

The Association has since declared its dissolution