ELECTIONS.

No important state election took place during the present and the two succeeding months. On the first Tuesday in September, Vinton voted for and members of the legislature. The opposing candidates for governor are Piton (e.) and Staton (f.). The whig candidate will be elected; but a smaller majority than usual is anticipated; and because Piton appears not to be sustained with that cordial unanimity which the whigs of the Green-

Mountain State generally display. On the second Monday in September an election was held in Massachusetts, and state officers were chosen; but the result was not known until the next day, when it was ascertained that Piton had been elected.
