The most singular spit in the world is that of the Count de Castel Haria, one of the most equals lords of Traviso. This spit turns one hundred and thirty different roasts at once, and plays twestly-four tunes, and whatever it plays corresponds to a certain degree of cooking, which is perfectly understood by the cook. Thus a leg of muttos, of Angleon, will be goullest at the twelfth sir, a low, a is Flamends, will be juiley at the sighteenth, and so on.
