Wikinews is an online, free-content, collaborative news source. Anyone can start writing, today. No application necessary. Just visit the website, click “edit” and you're a contributor.

Articles develop by collaboration – anyone can edit any article – so contributors have to work together towards consensus. Labor, Liberal, Communist, Left-wing, Right-wing, Conservative, Progressive, Up, Down, it doesn't matter. Everyone works together to achieve what the Wikinews community calls neutral point of view. Sceptical? Check it out for yourself:
