ARRIVAL OF THE CALEDONIA.

The mail of yesterday brought intelligence of the arrival of the Caledonia. We were disappointed in not having received a letter from New York; but the letter from our Paras-correspondent of the 18th October came to hand, which will apper in full upon the French side of the Bee, and from which we make a summary, and add such items of instelligence are find in a meagre account of the news fin the New York in the Caledonia as meagre account of the news fin the New York in the Caledonia and the Drasma, in which lives were lost on the position of the Parasa, in which lives were lost on the position of the parasity of the position was felt at September 18th and 18th ARRIVAL OF THE CALEDONIA.

The Parisian press appears to be almost exclusively occupied with the project of a commercial of custom-house union between France and Belgium. The plant is a superior of the plant is warmly supported by several of the most influen-French journals, and opposed by others. It is stated hat the cabinet itself is divided upon the question— Mesers. Guizer, Lacave, Laplagne and Duchatel. being in favor of it, and Messrs. Sour., Gaidaine and Martin being hostile to it. The question in all its details being one of exceeding difficulty, and has consequently excited very animated discussion.

The intelligence of the boarding of a Prench mer-thant vessel upon the coast of Africa by a British man-of-war, has again given rise to a most accrimonious commentary upon the right of search.

The American tariff is still a favorite subject with the press. In this the French writers show their limited acquaintance with the nature of the circumstance that madeced it. The French journalists yet speak of it with great discontinut.

It is now pretty well ascertained that the American Minister (General Case) has demanded this reall, and only awaits a reply from Washington before leaving France for the nited States. Gen. Case will be greatly regretted to be French Metropolis, and it will be difficult to replace him by one who will make as favorable an impression. No one know better than he have to blend the dignity of his official station with the cordinal stability and simplicity of the republican.

Towards the close of September there was a sharp encounter between the Arabs and a body of French troops under Gen. Chancarner, in which the French lost 100 privates and six officers. The conflict lasted two days, when after a desperate resistance the Arabs, otwithstanding their overwhelming superiority of

The British press exhibits every day a greater hostility to the treaty at Washington. They even go so far as to counsel the ministry to refuse its ratification —this, however, is nothing but declamation, as the ministry will, beyond a doubt, approve the treaty with the sanction of parliament. For besides the great ad-United States at a period when her resources barely suffice to chable her to maintain her footing in China

The revolution in Servia appears to be fully accomplished, in spite of the pricests of the European Cunsule. It is singular that the Russian Consul initiated in every respect the conduct of the English, French and Austrian Consuls, although it is well known that the revolution was begun to benefit Russia, and was probably put on foot by her.
