FOR CONGRESS—FIRST DISTRICT:

EDWARD D. WHITE.
REPRESENTATIVE SENATE LEGISLATURE
FELIX LABATUT
NEW-ORLEANS
FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 16, 1843.

MR. SLIDELL IN 1837 AND 1843.

We, yesterday, commenced a review of certain publications, which we are told by the Courier, and we do not doubt the fact, were written by Mr. SLIDELL in 1837, touching the conservatism and the attitude of the political parties of that period towards the ultra radical culture of Louisiana. We showed how utterly mistaken Mr. SLIDELL was in the fact proposition assumed in these writings. He began it on his closing in the most peremptory manner the prominence of the whig party—that the party in the ascendancy—and suddenly and by degrees, and the heat was intense.

A number of valuable copper mines have been discovered in the department of Jalisco.

The papers confirm the information of the robbery of the commissioners sent by Arqudelo and the Yucata neze to make arrangements with Santa Ana for a permanent treaty of peace. The diligence which conveyed them was plundered a short distance from Puebla.

A communication from Gen. Reyes, governor of Puebla, mentions his having attacked on the 11th May by a band of rebels. He adds that after vainly seeking success from Matamoros and other places, he fought the insurgents and beat them off.

The Mexican Extraordinary of the 3d says—"The Indians of Yucatan, having left that place on the 6th of May, it is expected that the treaty of peace between Yucatan and Mexico, had either been ratified, or would certainly be accepted.

☞ The hogging factory of Mr. Samuel Reed, was destroyed by fire on the 6th inst.

Mr. Tyler left Washington on the 8th inst., on his northern tour.

☞ We are indebted to the clerk of the steamboat Hamilton, for late Louisville and river papers.

☞ Several of the Georgia papers urge the policy of manufacturing corn-stalk sugar in that State.

MAIL ROBBERY.—The mail bag between Troy and Buffalo was broken open and rifled a few days since, in front of the Rochester post office.

☞ The Pittsburgh papers state that Brigadier-General H. Eaton, the engineer, has died of the injuries received from falling off the porch of his lodgings.

A Coroner's inquest was held at Mobile on Tuesday, over the body of a drayman which was found in the river. A verdict was rendered of accidental drowning.

Hon. Alexander Mouton has been appointed by the Governor of Louisiana, Judge of the Supreme Court, in the room of Hon. Alexander Porter, deceased.

Hon. Edward Simon has been appointed by the Governor of Louisiana, Judge of the Supreme Court, in the room of Hon. Alexander Mouton, appointed to another office.

Hon. Alexander Walker has been appointed by the Governor of Louisiana, Judge of the Supreme Court, in the room of Hon. Edward Simon, appointed to another office.
