

英語三甲沈庭語

Guess ABC is held by the department of English instruction in the second semester.

This activity is for those who want to challenge themselves, improve their English speaking ability and, the most of all, have fun. They have to pair up to be in a group.

In a limit time one of them has to guess ~~the~~ answers which the other trying to convey.

The answers might be Taiwanese tradition idioms or some phrases. The more the participant guesses ~~the~~ correctly answer the more points they will get. At the end of the activity, the winners will be the group which gets the most points and will get reward.
