Subject: Summary of Evidence for Combatant Status Review Tribunal – HICKS, David Matthew

1. Under the provisions of the Secretary of the Navy Memorandum, dated 29 July 2004, Implementation of Combatant Status Review Tribunal Procedures for Enemy Combatants Detained at Guantanamo Bay Naval Base Cuba, a Tribunal has been appointed to review the detainee's designation as an enemy combatant.
2. An enemy combatant has been defined as "an individual who was part of or supporting the Taliban or al Qaida forces, or associated forces that are engaged in hostilities against the United States or its coalition partners. This includes any person who committed a belligerent act or has directly supported hostilities in aid of enemy armed forces."
3. The United States Government has previously determined that the detainee is an enemy combatant. This determination is based on information possessed by the United States that indicates that he was a fighter for the Taliban and engaged in hostilities against the United States or its coalition partners.
  - a. The detainee is an al-Qaida fighter:
    1. The detainee affiliated himself with the Taliban.
    2. The detainee knew his training was conducted by al-Qaida, which had declared war on the United States.
    3. The detainee was trained to use grenades, landmines, rocket-propelled grenades and other small arms weapons.
    4. The detainee attended the al-Qaida Information Course in Kabul, where the instructor cited the al-Qaida bombing of the USS Cole as a positive example of the uses of al-Qaida training.
    5. The detainee met Osama Bin Laden on approximately eight occasions.
  - b. The detainee participated in military operations against the coalition.
    1. The detainee personally collected intelligence on the American Embassy in Afghanistan for al-Qaida.
    2. Following 9-11, the detainee met with a senior al-Qaida leader to discuss various locations to fight against the United States and Northern Alliance forces.
