

LA ABEJA

NEW-ORLEANS, 4 DE MARZO.

CENTRO-AMERICA.

Las ultimas noticias de esta república recibidas por la goleta Estados-Unidos que vino a Veracruz alcanzan hasta el 18 de enero. La guerra civil continuaba con ardor en los Estados de Nicaragua y Honduras, y estaba en viéperas de renovarse en los de Guatemala y San Salvador.

El coronel Dominguez uno de los proscriptos por el partido vencedor, no pudo ser preso y se asegura que a la cabeza de los Olanchanos y Opotecas ha ocupado a Comayagua y a Tegucigalpa tomando en esta ultima ciudad muchas armas a Morazan, quien en su derrota se habia refugiado en el departamento de San Miguel que le es deafe to. Dominguez tenia mil setecientos hombres, y su ejército que se llama restaurador, debia aumentarse mucho por la favorable disposicion de los pueblos.

Los Estados de Costa Rica y San Salvador han desconocido formalmente los actos del congreso de 1826 que hizo reunir Morazan a su entrada en Guatemala, no concediendo paso sino al decreto de convocatoria para la reunion de nuevas autoridades federales, de suerte que las leyes de proscripción no se recien, ni en la república, y serán bien pronto para sus autores y ejecutores un germen de graves responsabilidades, así como ya es un motivo para que se les esclara generalmente.

Hasta el 15 de enero no se habia podido reunir el nuevo congreso general convocado para el 15 de diciembre, y se cree, no podria bastar a por falta de número. San Salvador ha instruido a sus diputados para que no concuerden en que la reunion se verifique en Guatemala, sino en la Villa de Abascochapan y este será un nuevo motivo de dificultades.

Es tambien probable que la eleccion de presidente no llegará a tener lugar, pues solo hacen caso de esto los tres pretendientes de San Valla, Barrundia y Morazan, por temor de las reacciones. En Guatemala continuaba bajando el espíritu de persecucion por los hijos de la patria que ha remplazado al de hacienda pública que no hay, y se acude tambien a muchos bandidos particulares, como el aventurero Kapul disfruta una de las haciendas quitadas a los regulares. No habia tropas en la capital, ni armas, por que de todo fue despojada por los invasores del año pasado.

Segun las ultimas noticias que se acababan de recibir del interior aunque no se habian circunstanciadamente, la guerra en Honduras era muy activa y se hacia a muerte; el coronel Gutierrez uno de los que mas malidades ejecutaron en Guatemala habia sido herido gravemente, y se asegura que moria en uso de los escuadros en que tambien precisaron el oficial de dragones Martinez, y otros varios bien conocidos antes por sus atrocidades.

Este es el aspecto de las cosas originado indudablemente de las medidas desastrosas que se adoptaron despues del triunfo de Morazan sobre la capital, y disolucion del gobierno nacional.

El Cuyro de la federacion habiendo del estado político de Centro-America lo presenta en peligro de caer en una anarquía horrorosa, y hace ver la necesidad en que está el gobierno de Mexico de tomar algunas medidas para preservar un pais vecino de un mal que puede ser trascendental a los Estados Mexicanos.

NEW-ORLEANS: THURSDAY, MARCH 4, 1830.

From the Attakapas Gazette. We have been informed, lately, that Messrs. Duralde and Marigny, have withdrawn as candidates for Governor; that the first named will throw his interest into Mr. Roman's scale, and Mr. Marigny give his support to Mr. Beauvais. This arrangement gives to Messrs. Beauvais and Roman a weight to which none of the remaining candidates can aspire. Messrs. Hamilton and Butler will divide the votes in Florida, and Messrs. Overton and Thomas in the upper part of the State. Lafourche will give some votes to each of the candidates; but we have heard that Mr. Roman's popularity will secure him the most powerful support there. Mr. J. S. Johnston, it would seem from a recent article in the Mercantile Advertiser, which first nominated him, is not a candidate—General Dawson has not yet attained the constitutional age. We therefore reduce our list of candidates this week to the following names: T. Butler, W. H. Overton, A. Beauvais, A. B. Roman, Isaac Thomas, W. S. Hamilton.

We have also heard that James M. Bradford, Esq. has withdrawn. Gen. W. H. Overton has positively declined a reelection to Congress from this district. We firmly believe he could obtain three fourths of the votes, against any other man who would probably offer; but his private affairs suffer so much from his absence, that he has determined on retiring to his home, after his present term of service expires. Those men who voluntarily quit high and honorable places, may safely be trusted.

LOUISIANA LEGISLATURE—Senate. Tuesday, Feb. 23. Order of the day. Third Reading. The bill entitled "an act to authorize the appointment of a justice of the peace for the upper Faubourg, of New-Orleans, commonly called the upper banlieue. This was adopted with its title. Second Reading. The following bills underwent their second reading: "An act to amend an act entitled 'an act relative to the introduction of slaves in this state, and for other purposes.' " "An act to incorporate the Bellenger Canal Company in the Parish of Terrebonne"—the rules were dispensed with and this bill passed. "An act to compel the clerks of the several courts of this state to give security, and for other purposes." This bill was amended. "An act to amend an act entitled 'an act relative to roads and leaves'—this bill was amended, the rules were dispensed with, and was adopted with its title. "An act to open certain roads in this state"—amended, the rules dispensed with and passed. "An act to improve the navigation of Bayou Vermillion, in the Parish of Lafayette"—the body and title were amended. The title as amended is "an act to improve the navigation of the Bayou Vermillion, and for other purposes;" the rules were dispensed with and the bill as amended passed. Resolutions requesting the American Consul to make enquiry of the authorities of the Island of Cuba, relative to certain public documents; and "an act to appropriate a sum of money for the purpose of cleaning out the channel of False River, in the Parish of Point Coupée."

The Rules were dispensed with and both the above resolution and bill passed. On motion the senate went into executive business. On opening the doors the senate adjourned till to-morrow 10 o'clock a. m.

ITEMS. A new species of Indigo has been discovered in the Philippine Islands. It has been known since immemorial amongst the natives, under the names of pay in gait and aranguit. The dye produced is as deep and fast as that of indigo.

The Susquehanna at Sunbury was so strongly frozen that horses crossed. The thermometer in Boston, last Saturday night, stood at 6 degrees below zero, and on Sunday morning four persons were found dead in their beds supposed to have been frozen to death. In Salem, it sunk 10 degrees below zero, and closed up the harbor with ice.

The Ohio river at Wheeling last Saturday was only two feet above low water, mark and the navigation much obstructed with floating ice.

The Assembly of Lower Canada, on the 25th ult. went into Committee on the subject of addressing his Excellency the Administrator, to remove Mr. Christie, who has been expelled the House, from all situations of honor or profit. Mr. Christie holds a judicial situation under the provincial government. The address was lost, thirteen only voting in its favor. The lobby and gallery were crowded to excess on the occasion.

An Albany paper of Feb. 2, says—We have now about six inches of snow on a good bottom, and the sound of sleigh bells gives pleased note that our citizens are enjoying it.

From Louisiana, we learn that the Legislature of that State, on the 14th ult., decided definitively the question (which had occupied their attention for several days) after meeting, who was to be the present Governor of the State. The Constitution of that State provides that, "in case of the impeachment of the Governor, his removal from office, death, &c. the President of the Senate shall exercise all the power and authority appertaining to the office of Governor until another be duly qualified." Governor Derbigny having died in the recess of the Legislature, the President of the Senate, at the preceding session. (Mr. Beauvais,) took upon himself and exercised the duties of Governor until the Legislature met. The question then arose, whether he remained the Governor, or whether the President of the Senate, to be the Governor. This question was finally settled by choosing Jacques Dupre to be President of the Senate, who took the reins of government until the installation of a new Governor, who, under a resolution of the Legislature, is to be chosen by the people in July next. As we read the Constitution of the State, his proceeding is directly in the teeth of it. Not being able to untie the knot, the Legislature seems to have cut it.—Nat. Intel.

The Morning Herald contains the following statements in relation to a legal investigation which has filled an unusually large space in the London papers. On the twelfth day of the proceeding, as soon as Sir Charles Wetherell had made his speech, the jury found a verdict against his clients; believing the alleged lunatic to be of sound mind:—"It is stated that the expense of conducting the inquiry into Mr. Davies' state of mind will be about five thousand pounds. The fees to Counsel amount to a very considerable sum. When the first application was made to the Lord Chancellor, at Brighton, five or six Counsel were taken down, at a very heavy expense; and those gentlemen have, in addition to their briefs, received large sums for various consultations and deliberations. The fees given to Sir C. Wetherell to attend the enquiry were, we understand, 200 guineas the first day, and 20 guineas for every succeeding day; the fee to the Counsel's clerk on such occasions, is one shilling in the pound; so that Sir Charles and his clerk have received, during the eleven days that the inquiry has occupied, about 420 guineas.—Mr. Wright, Sir Charles's junior, received, we are told, 100 guineas with his brief, and 10 guineas for his attendance on each of the last ten days. The three Commissioners have received five guineas per day, and the Jury, seventeen in number, have each received one guinea per day; the summoning officer has also received the same. The charge for the accommodation at the coffee-house is about five guineas per day. In support of the commission thirty witnesses were examined, each of whom received one guinea with the cost of the subpoena: fourteen of these were medical men of the first eminence, and they will of course, be adequately remunerated for the eleven days they were in attendance, addition to their tavern expenses. Mr. Broughman's fee it is stated, was 300 guineas, and 30 guineas for each day's attendance after the first. Mr. Broderick, Mr. Adolphus, and Mr. Short, were paid smaller sums. Since the commencement of the inquiry, Mr. Gurney has been employed by both parties to take shorthand notes of the proceedings; and the same gentleman was also conveyed to Brighton, and was likewise engaged when the matter was in the Court of Chancery. His bill, it is calculated, will exceed 5000l."
