

TENTS.—Subscription ten dollars per annum, payable half yearly in advance.

The subscription will be stopped unless the arrears be paid, and the subscriber is to give to the publisher a full and clear account of his printing, a week previous to the expiration of the half year.

All the issues are published in English and French, at the rate of one dollar per copy, for each language, the first issue, or the first copy for each language. Ten lines of type are to be given.

A copy of the paper is to be sent, and as to the number of copies, we will endeavor to accommodate the expense of the subscribers.

A very short notice will be given to those who contract with us.

No notice will be given to the subscribers, unless application is made to the publisher.

Subscriptions may be given for one year.
