NATIONALITY AT A DISCOUNT.

A correspondent of one of the city papers writes enthusiastic and ecstatic over the national platform put forth by the State of New York, and recommends the democracy all over the country to occupy the same high position, and to rally around the standard-bearers of the Empire State. We see not the slightest wish to detract a single iota from the well-earned praises showered upon the National Democrats of New York. We have been foremost in echoing their panegyric. Faithful during the last dark days, they have stood forth in bold, uncompromisingly, honorably, and consistently as the champions of equal rights. But what avails their devotion? Their voice is as a puny whisper amid the loud and continuous roar of hostile faction; as a rill that is lost in the tumultuous ocean. No State of New York number thirty-two such men—less than one-twelfth of the whole State. They cannot command sufficient strength to throw the balance of power on the side of the right during the struggle of the parties. They receive no voice of encouragement from the adjacent commonwealths. New England is steeped to the nostrils in fanaticism, New Jersey and Pennsylvania are ripe for conservative and have embraced the anti-slavery doctrines to abandon their false Northwest seems hopelessly What then can the Spartan National Democrats in New York
