THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC—Last night commenced, with a crowded and delighted house, the last week but one of the Hanlon Brothers, who appeared in their most welcome and unprecedented amphitrouble exercises and their unique triple parterre act. MR. GARDNER'S CITY DIRECTORY.—We are sure the whole business community will cordially welcome the announcement of Mr. Chas Gardener that he has made arrangements to resume the publication of his city Directory, the last number of which was for 1861. The want of such a guide is every day more and more felt, and it will hereafter be doubly useful in consequence of the large addition of new commercial houses and the numerous changes of business and private address. The next volume will be for 1866. Mr. Gardner's office is No. 5 Commercial Place.
