BASEBALL GAME

Monday - April 7, 1969

THE PRESIDENT

You will depart the White House today at 12:55 p. m. for the Baseball Game. This is the opening season game between the Washington Senators and the New York Yankees. In your party, going to the Ball Park, will be Bud Wilkinson and Cy Laughter.

Upon arrival at the Ball Park, you will be met by Bob Short, President of the Washington Senators, and Joe Burke, Vice President of the New York Yankees. These two gentlemen will escort you to your box.

Upon arrival at your box, you will be greeted by Bowie K. Kuhn, the new Commissioner of Baseball and Mr. Joseph E. Cronin, President of the American League. Also present in your box will be six young men representing the six Washington area counties. These young men are the champion ball players from each county. Their names and pertinent information are attached. Accompanying the young ball players will be Mr. Joe Cole who is head of the Washington area Recreation Department.

After you have arrived in the box (1:20 p. m. ) the National Anthem will be played and then you will be asked to toss out the first ball. (For picture purposes, you will actually throw out three different base balls.)

The Ball Game is expected to be over at approximately 4:00 p. m.

See Enclosure No. 2

Welcoming Committee

Members of the Welcoming Committee are requested to arrive at the South Lawn of the White House by 9:40 a.m. entering the White House grounds at the Southwest Gate and proceeding to the Diplomatic Entrance.

See Enclosure No. 3 - Members of the Welcoming Committee

Arrival Ceremonies

At 9:55 a.m. President Nixon will depart from the President's Office. The trumpets will play four ruffles and flourishes and "Hail to the Chief". During the playing of "Hail to the Chief" President Nixon will walk to the vicinity of the platform to await the arrival of His Majesty.

At 10:00 a.m., His Majesty Hussein I, King of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, accompanied by the Honorable Emil Mosbacher, Jr., Chief of Protocol of the United States, will enter the Southwest Gate of the White House. The trumpets will sound a fanfare as the cars approach. (See Enclosures No. 4 and 5). The car carrying His Majesty will stop at the Diplomatic Entrance where Ambassador Mosbacher will present His Majesty to President Nixon. Then the Honorable William P. Rogers, Secretary of State, General Leonard F. Chapman, Jr., Commandant of the Marine Corps will be introduced. While photographs are being taken of the greetings, protocol officers will assist the members of the Jordanian party to their places to the right of the platform.

Following the photographs, President Nixon will escort His Majesty onto the platform.

PLATFORM

When all are in position, the Commander of Troops will bring the Honor Guard to Present Arms.

As the Commander of Troops salutes, the trumpets will sound four ruffles and flourishes and the band will play the national anthem of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan and the national anthem of the United States. A 21-gun salute will be fired simultaneously with the music.

Upon completion of honors, the troops will be given Order Arms, the Commander will salute and report, "Sir, the Honor Guard is formed."

President Nixon will escort His Majesty toward the band. The Commander of Troops will take a position to the right of His Majesty and guide him through the inspection. As the inspection party turns in front of the band, President Nixon will take a position to the right of the Commander of Troops.

The band will play appropriate music during the inspection. The inspection will begin at the right front of the band. The inspection party will pass along the front rank of troops. Members of the inspection party will render salutes when passing in front of the Colors. When the inspection party reaches the left flank of the Honor Guard, it will pass around the rear of the formation and around the band. When passing in rear of the Colors, salutes will not be rendered by members of the inspection party.

When the inspection party reaches the right front of the band, the Commander of Troops will halt, salute and report, "Sir, this completes the inspection." President Nixon will escort His Majesty back to the platform. The Commander of Troops will return to his post and bring the Honor Guard to Present Arms. He and his staff will salute His Majesty. After bringing the Honor Guard to Order Arms, the commander will salute and report, "Sir, this concludes the ceremony."

The President and His Majesty will move to the microphone at the left side of the platform. President Nixon will welcome His Majesty to the United States and His Majesty will respond.

Upon conclusion of the remarks, the President will escort His Majesty into the Diplomatic Reception Room. As they leave the platform, the trumpets will sound a fanfare. Secretary Rogers and General Chapman will join them and a receiving line will be formed on the east side of the room.

Members of the Jordanian Party and the Welcoming Committee will be escorted into the Diplomatic Reception Room where they will be presented to President Nixon, His Majesty, Secretary Rogers, and General Chapman. After each person has been presented, he will leave by the same door by which he entered.

When the greetings have been completed, President Nixon will take His Majesty to the President's Office. Other attending the meeting will follow.

Members of the Jordanian party who are not attending the meeting will return to the Diplomatic Entrance and enter their cars in the driveway. The cars will proceed to Blair House.

The automobiles of the Welcoming Committee will then come to the Diplomatic Entrance for their departure.

DINNER FOR NATO REPRESENTATIVES

THE WHITE HOUSE

FRIDAY, APRIL 11, 1969

THE PRESIDENT:

At 8:05 p.m. Willy Brandt, President of the North Atlantic Council and Manlio Brosio, Secretary General of NATO, will be escorted to the Yellow Oval Room to join you for approximately 15 minutes.

You, Mr. Brandt, and Mr. Brosio will then be escorted from the Family Quarters to the Grand Hall. Following Ruffles and Flourishes and being announced, you will enter the East Room as Hail to the Chief is played. You will form a receiving line just to the right of the entrance with your back to the west wall. The Color Guard will be prepositioned.

Your guests will be introduced to you by Ambassador Mosbacher and will then pass through the Green, Blue, and Red Rooms to their places in the State Dining Room. When the receiving line is disbanded you, Mr. Brandt, and Mr. Brosio will pass through the Grand Hall to your places in the State Dining Room. Mr. Brandt will be to your right with Mr. Brosio to your left.

It is a stag affair and the dress is black tie. A list of invited guests (approximately 100) is attached.

Coffee, liqueurs, and cigars will be served in the Green, Blue, and Red Rooms after dinner and music will be provided by the Marine Band.

Program of Events

10:55 a.m. The President and Mrs. Nixon arrive at the main entrance of the Pan American Union, 17th Street near Constitution Avenue.

Mr. Paul Murphy, O.A.S. Chief of Protocol, will meet the President and Mrs. Nixon at the car and escort them up the steps to the main entrance doorway. Here they will be greeted by:

Ambassador and Mrs. Carlos Holguin
(Chairman of the Council of the O.A.S., and Colombian Representative)
Secretary General and Mrs. Galo Plaza

As the President enters the building, the United States Army Band, in the patio, will play four ruffles and flourishes, and "Hail to the Chief."

The party will proceed up the south stairway. Standing at the head of the stairway will be:

Ambassador and Mrs. Luis Alvarado
(Vice-Chairman of the Council of the O.A.S., and Peruvian Representative)
Assistant Secretary General and Mrs. M. Rafael
Urquia

The party will then go to the office of the Secretary General, just to the left of the head of the stairway. Inside the office, they will form a line in the following order:

1. Ambassador Holguin (Chairman of the Council)
2. The President
3. Mrs. Nixon
4. Mrs. Holguin
5. Ambassador Alvarado (Vice-Chairman of the Council)
6. Mrs. Alvarado

7. Secretary General Galo Plaza
8. Mrs. Plaza
9. Assistant Secretary General M. Rafael Urquia
10. Mrs. Urquia

The other twenty Ambassadors, Representatives to the O.A.S. and their wives, including United States Representative Ambassador Sol M. Linowitz, will then come in from the office of the Assistant Secretary General and proceed down the receiving line.

The O.A.S. Ambassadors will then take their places on the stage in the Hall of the Americas, near the top of the south stairway. Their wives will be seated in the first rows of the audience.

The members of the receiving line, except for the President and the Secretary General, will then be escorted to the Hall of the Americas. Mrs. Nixon will be seated in the first row with the wives of the O.A.S. Ambassadors.

11:10 a.m. The President will then be escorted by Secretary General Plaza into the Hall of the Americas. He will be seated on the stage near the speakers' podium.

The Chairman of the Council will introduce the President. (5 minutes)

11:15 a.m. The President will then address the audience. (suggested duration 10-15 minutes)

11:30 a.m. The Chairman of the Council will thank the President and request that guests remain in their seats while the President and his party depart.

The President and Mrs. Nixon will be escorted from the Hall of the Americas, down the south stairway, through the main doorway to their car, by the Chairman of the Council and the Secretary General.

MEETING WITH LIFE INSURANCE REPRESENTATIVES CONTINUED:

THE PRESIDENT:

NOTE:

There will be photo coverage only
of your meeting with this group.

It is suggested that you informally thank the Life Insurance Representatives for their second round investment of one billion dollars in housing, health and job creating facilities in core city areas.

Your participation is estimated to be of approximately 5 minutes duration, at the conclusion of which you will be escorted back to your office.

In the event of inclement weather you would meet with this group in the Cabinet Room.

NOTE:

No remarks have been prepared for your use.

After your departure the Life Insurance Representatives will hold a press conference in the Roosevelt Room to announce their commitment. Your written statement will be released to the press at this time.

VIEWING OF THE P.S. 270 SAVINGS BONDS EAGLE

THE WHITE HOUSE

TUESDAY, APRIL 15, 1969

THE PRESIDENT:

At 4:00 p. m. you will be escorted from your office to the South Lawn where you will meet approximately 40 Fifth Grade students from Public School 270 of the Bedford Stuyvesant district, Brooklyn, New York. They will show you their 60 by 90 foot reproduction of the campaign eagle symbol of the U. S. Savings Bonds Program. Today is the kickoff of the 1969 Savings Bonds Campaign.

Also in attendance will be Miss Eva Gabor, television and motion picture star and Honorary Co-Chairman of the 1969 Campaign; Miss Rose Deering, Acting Principal of P.S. 270; Mr. Anthony Perry, President of the P. T. A. ; Senator Javits; Congressman Rooney; Mrs. Siemers, and a representative of the International Union of Operating Engineers, which financed the project and the trip to Washington.

NOTE:

Mr. Howard Siemers, School Engineer of P.S. 270, originated and supervised this project, but is unable to attend as he was stricken with a heart attack last week.

THE PRESIDENT:

After you have completed your inspection of the large eagle, one of the students will present you with a 2 by 3 foot framed reproduction of the eagle in satin which is also their handiwork. Miss Eva Gabor will present you with a personalized campaign pen and an eagle lapel pin. It is suggested that you make brief "off the cuff" remarks to thank the students for their support and their initiative.

At the conclusion of the ceremony you will be escorted back to your office.

It is estimated that your participation will be of approximately 10--15 minutes duration.

NOTE:

There will be press coverage.

Suggested remarks have been prepared for your use.
