A MESSAGE TO BE HEARD.

Mr. Earl Vossen, assistant secretary of agriculture, brought New Orleans an important message last week when he was at the American Exposition in Paris, in the Imperial Palace Hotel, where the American farm women are gathering and before the council of farm women of the United States, according to one report.

Mr. Vossen urges farm women to use the idea of "buy local." He says that the idea is a good one and that it is going to be used on farms in the United States. He says that it is a good idea to use the idea of "buy local." He says that it is going to be used on farms in the United States.

Mr. Vossen adds that the idea of "buy local" is going to be used on farms in the United States.

Mr. Vossen adds that the idea of "buy local" is going to be used on farms in the United States.

Louisiana Condensed.

Mrs. H. T. Nichols, a 20-year-old maiden lady, left New Orleans on Monday for a three-months' trip to Europe. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. T. Nichols, who is also a well-known artist.

While in Europe, Mrs. Nichols will visit many of the famous art galleries in Paris, London, and Berlin, where she has a number of friends. She will also visit the United States, where she has a number of friends.

Mrs. Nichols is a well-known artist, and she has been painting for many years. She has won many awards, and she has been exhibited in many galleries in the United States.

The United States did not decide to go to war on a single day. It was a gradual process, and the United States did not go to war on a single day.

While the United States was at war, the United States did not go to war on a single day. It was a gradual process, and the United States did not go to war on a single day.

The United States did not decide to go to war on a single day. It was a gradual process, and the United States did not go to war on a single day.

The United States did not decide to go to war on a single day. It was a gradual process, and the United States did not go to war on a single day.

While the United States was at war, the United States did not go to war on a single day. It was a gradual process, and the United States did not go to war on a single day.