the best distillers, such as purone, pagmus, purvey, and Adam, Bernard, etc. etc.

They are themselves the hiventors and progristen of a new apparatus for distillers, which though not so expeditious as that of Derone and Baglioni, effects to the distillers of Rum and Tafa, the same results as to quantity, quality, and for the rectification by alcohol, there is greater security in the working of it without the constant care which other apparatus indispensably require. They make all kinds of alombics, then as comes, theptal, balis, etc. etc.

They are also the investors and proprieters of a new rectestman, they cannot easily be deranged. They are con-structed in the same manner to pump up sirop, or any other boiling liquid. There is nothing omitted to make them services blo, and their solidity is guaranteed against all de-
