MEXICO.

By the Schooner Cannon, Capt. Pitot New Vess Crus, we have received papers from the city of Mexice up to the 20th Nov. We base only been able to give them a cursory hoes. The following is translated from the hogistre Oficial of that date:

The supreme government has just received by express, despatthes from his excellency the Governor and commendant General of St. Louis Percei, by which it is announced that on the 17th last., Col. Don Jose Marquer, Inspector of the militia of that State, had directed an attack against that Capital, with a part of the forces of the second Independent Buttalien; the resistance however, which he encountered from the vanguard of the first battabon of the same class, to- must make you as a se as long as you continue to derer. gether with the presenttions taken by the civil pay it. Don Joseph Guarate were immediately shot. Thus commenced and ended, in the space of ten hours, a revolution which afforded a happy opportunity to judge of the patriotic sentiments manifested by the people; for the citizens ple sty of your money; your new King sent over to attend to these repeated warnings, and to adof all conditions promptly lout their aid to the suthorities, whose zeel cannot be too highly summended. To-morrow we shall be she to give the circumstances of this affair in detail.---The execution, which took place in consequence of this attempt, so well as the numerous victims that perished have occasioned a sort of a coneternation, the only cause for which, exists in the obstinate endeavours of those mutineers to disturb the public tranquility. They seek nothing less than to involve the nation in remediless ruin. Let what has taken place at St. Louis Potoni prove a warning to them! Let them remember that the whole nation has declared against them; and that the most exemplary punsahment awaits offenders.

COBBET'S ADDRESS, To the brase Working-Prople of Paris.

Lowie, Susper, 19th Oct. 1830. Friends-Every good man in England feels indignant at the base attempt that is now making to withdraw from justice the savage and fernthings; we saw with surprise another Bourban set up over you, and that, too, without consulting the "sovereign people" upon the subject; we were astonished to see, that loan-jobbers took the lead in your affairs; that Baron Louis, who was one of the ministers of Louis XVIII, was one of your new ministers; but, the sending of Talleyrand to England opened our eyes, and convinced us, that your blood, if things must go no further, had been shed in vain. In short, we saw that you had, in effect, gained nothing at all; and that, unless you were as vigitant as you have been brave, you would again be brought, tent doncement, gently and softly, into the same state in which the Bourbons had held you before.

Brave and generous men of France! let m beg you patiently attend to me while I describe the motives of those who wish to save these bas and cruel tyrants. Their endeavours are so manifestly unjust, the object of tuem is me wicked, they are so directly against nature, the heart of man so involuntarily swells with indiznation at the bare thought of the audacious design, that we are hurried away from the motives; yet, we ought to look well at these motives; for we shall find them of the greatest importance to mis foot upon our oi ! It is enough to rouse the Hence your new bie captain of a vessel some time since found government soon become connected closely with mardered on the banks of the river in the vicinours; Charles came here instead of going to A-lity of Rocketts? We are called upon then by merica; your kind-hearted government gave him every considers ion of prudence and humanity. Would not a respectable and active Comsay interest of debt, and to be taxe I as heavily as ou had been before; and thus, quickly and soft. v. you were to be robbed of all the fruit of your volour and your blood. The interest which you vigilance of the law, and facilitate the adminismy on the debt amounts to 275,000,000 of francs every year; and the for greater part of this comes out of your labor. The rich people, bun sers, and the like, are owners of the public fullds, they therefore, r. ce ve this money; an I want this system to continue, and they know that it could not continue under a republican government; and they know also that it carried continue if they ave any thing like such a government.

These people who, mark well, live on your labour, are extremely desirous to be closely connected with our Government, because that is necess-ry to keep up your pub ic funds. Now, our Government has very good reasons to wish not to see ministers put to death for slaughtering the people! Agd I have no doubt that all the foreign courts have united to make a barguin with yours or saving the life of the ministers. Besides the there is the danger of the example! And, then, who knows what socrets the ministers in sy have cious men who caused your streets to flow with to tell! However, the principal motive is, to incesse blood. We were surprised at many keep all quiet; and it is expected, that if you can be made to let these men escape, you will be a-Zain subdued, and easily m de to submit to any thing. And these calculations are very correct for, if these men escape, there is no crime tha may not be committed against you with impungv: if they can thus shed your blood, and go unounished, will any tyrant be, in future afraid to rob you of your property or your liberty?

That they will not go unpunished is, we hope, certain, though we perceive that all sorts of means are put in motion for the purpose of prewrite from Paris, and who are hired and paid to All this we saw before it became so evident dec ive you and us.
