

Wed. night
157 Church St.
New Haven, Conn.

Dear Freddy:

You will probably be very surprised to receive this letter but its this way.
The Yale hockey team, of which I'm asst. coach, is fighting Penn's team in Philly Sat. Feb. 13.
It looks like I'll be there and wonder if you'd like to spend the evening with drink a few and possibly take in the hotter spots of New York. Don't bother unless you know someone who can fill the bill.

Someone like yourself who enjoys a good time but doesn't talk too much about it.

Back to the old grind but anxious for a visit to St. Rapids again soon.
I thought the old town did itself proud over the holiday but I imagine that depends upon one's point of view.

me. We will probably arrive in Philly Friday about 8:00 P.M. so Friday & Sat. might be bunched together.
Would appreciate hearing from you shortly about this.

Some more along the same line, my roommate in New Haven and head basketball coach at Yale is going to be in Philly with his team next Sat Jan 30. How about getting him a date with some good looking, peppy girl who would like to Set me know about the

until then my best.

as ever
