DYEING AND SCOURING IN GENERAL.

NOTICE—Madame MOUNET has the honor to inform the public, that on the 1st June last, they have opened at No 180 Chartres street, opposite the Orleans Hotel for DYEING AND SCOURING in all its branches.

The knowledge they have acquired of this art, by many years labor and study in the principal cities of Europe, and a study of chemistry applied to dying, induce them to hope that no hesitation will be felt in entrusting to them the most valuable articles of dress, as they are convinced as they are that such articles will be as carefully and properly attended to as at Paris. Those who may honor them with their confidence may rest assured of the neatness, skill, by the care and elegance of their work, and by the dispatch imparted to it.

They dye and scour all kinds of articles, such as silk, merinos, mousseline laines, cashmeres, crapes, tissues, velvet pians or velvets, Italian Barèges, and Organdies, Parisian crapes, mousseline, lace and theatrical costumes with gold thread gloves, silk stockings, they clean silk dresses with the greatest care, and in such a manner as to preserve the bleach muslins, jaconets and print dresses, giving them the appearance of new materials. They clean and dye kid gloves, in all colors, and without wetting the leather, restoring them, and giving them all the neatness of new articles. They dye clothing black for mourning in twenty-four hours. Decrease the quantity of the coloring matter. They likewise redye black stuffs, giving them various colors

Terms moderate. oct1—9m

THE LOUISIANA LAW SCHOOL, which is now permanently established at No. 117 Royal street, between St. Louis and Conti streets, will be opened on the 16th of October next.

The institution, the only one in the United States where the Civil Law is taught, has been established, during twenty-five years, in this city, and the old established, has deserved so flattering a support from the public, that the undersigned has felt it his duty to spare no pains or expense in rendering it as extensively useful as practicable.

The Course of Studies embraces a general and a special course.

The General Course, which comprehends the outlines of the science of jurisprudence, is intended as preparatory to Special course. It includes, besides an examination of the utility and philosophy of legal studies, an outline of the history of the Roman, Spanish, French and Common law, which is indispensable to enable the students to appreciate the elements of the jurisprudence of Louisiana, also the principles of modern international and of constitutional law, &c.

The Special Course, which is devoted to the study of the actual legislation of Louisiana, and which is intended to prepare the students for admission to the bar, embraces the study of the various authors prescribed by the rule of the Supreme Court of the 20th Nov. 1840, prefaced to the 1st vol. of Louisiana Reports

Attached to the Law School is an extensive and well selected Law Library, comprising several thousand volumes.

The Hon Henry A Bullard, Judge of the supreme Court, Judah Benedict, Esq, late Attorney General of the State, and P Benjamin, Esq, will aid the undersigned in delivering lectures in the institution.

Terms—Fifty dollars for the General, and one hundred dollars for the Special Course—each course is of six months duration. Subscribers to the Special Course are admitted free of charge to the General Course.

Applications to be made to the subscriber, who will promptly furnish any additional information that may be desired.

ORLEANS HIGH SCHOOL.
(Lycée d'Orléans.)
FAUBOURG STATE.

THIS SEMINARY, conducted by Professors EVERETT MEAVOYER and WYNDHAM an Louisiana, retiring from their duties, have the honor to announce to their friends and the public that

The course of instruction comprehends all the branches of a thorough and complete education

Terms are moderate in all cases, including the three professors of the School, besides those gentlemen, first teachers of the accomplishments Music, Drawing, Dancing and Fencing, are attached to the institution.

The Proprietors have always in their employ several teachers whose only duty is to watch over the pupils in the play grounds, study rooms and dormitories.

The discipline observed in this Seminary is strict and mild, and in reference to the parents or guardians of the pupils, a monthly bulletin is exhibited, signed by the Directors themselves.

Besides the teaching, the Proprietors, satisfied that sound learning can only be acquired by systematic and long continued labor require all the new fangled systems of education to be rejected as unworthy of notice, as in much too rash, that has been heretofore followed in them.

The printed Statutes of the High School may be had in English and in French at the principal book stores in this city

N B—The Directors of the High School feel much pleasure in announcing that they have secured the valuable services of Professor Jules Fort, from Paris, who will enter on his duties on the 1st November next
