FROM HAVANA.

By the ship HAVANA, which arrived yesterday, we received papers from Havana to the 10th inst. They contain nothing of special interest. The British steamer, Capt. Haverly, arrived on board $130,000 worth of sugar for England. She brings down from Mexico to the 30th ult, the extracts we find in the Havana papers are not very interesting. THE NIAGARA MILLS, on the Canada side, was destroyed a few days since. The cause of the destruction is not known. The mills were valued at $200,000 and were insured.

THE OREGON ELECTORS, for congress and the legislature took place on the 10th. We shall bring you returns by the close of the week. In Cincinnati and Hamilton county, the best candidates are running. The electors are not very numerous, but will probably be more so in the future.
