MODE DE TIRAGE.
 POUR déterminer les lots gagnans, on emploie 4 roues; dans la première, pour ce tirage, on place quinze paquets, numérotés 0, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, dont dix seulement sont tirés. Dans chacune des autres roues, on placera dix paquets, numérotés 0, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9. Alors on tirera successi-vement un paquet de chacune des roues, en commençant par la gauche, ce qui for-mera des séries correspondant aux numéros de quelque billet pris dans cette Loterie.
 Après cela on tirera encore un autre paquet de chaque roue, et ainsi de suite jusqu'à ce que tous les paquets soient tirés, ce qui formera dix séries.
 Le billet dont les numéros correspondent à ceux de la première série, dans l'ordre de tirage, gagnera $ 3000 numéros correspondent, dans le même ordre, aux trois derniers de la 4e. série Tous les billets (au nombre de 1350) qui auront pour derniers numéros les deux derniers de quelque série que ce soit, toujours dans l'ordre de tirage, ga-gneront autant de lots de 5

Tous les billets (au nombre de 3000) ayant pour dernier numéro le dernier numéro de la 1re. ou de la 2de. série, gagneront autant de lots de 2-50 cts

Tous les autres billets seront blancs.

Aucun billet ayant gagné un gros lot

THE BELL PRINTED WEEKLY, BY F. MALLOU.
 St. Peter Street, between Bourbon and Canal.
SAURDAY, NOV. 14, 1828.

SAVANNAH, Oct. 20.
From the River Plate.—The Sch George Eyre, Capt. Rees, from Montevideo, to New York, put into this port on Wednesday last, in disgust, having sprung leak, and experienced such difficulty in keeping afloat with bot-pumps going.
 Capt. Rees left Montevideo about the middle of August, and reports that the blockade was at that time enforced with increased vigor, and that the blockading squadron had been reinforced.
 Preparations were making to carry on the war with activity, as no hopes were entertained of peace.
 Several American vessels had been captured by the blockading squadron and condemned.—The schooner Tell Tale of New York was spoken by a Brazilian in cruiser, and brought into Montevideo. While lying in port, the mate and crew were sent to the common prison, and confined ten days and then discharged, without a reason being assigned. A most brutal violence was also committed on the person of the steward of the Tell Tale.
 The American citizens at Montevideo exasperated by these and other outrages, held a meeting on the 11th August, and addressed a spirited representation of the transaction to William Tudor, Esq. our charge d'affaires at the court of Brazil, and another to Captain Hodgson of the U. States sloop of war Boston.

Mimmoth Steamboat.—In the French Bulletin of Technological Sciences for June 1828, we find the following account of a steamboat which is now in being constructed by the government of the Netherlands. The vessel is 250 feet in length, and is to have four mast-and a bowsprit. The machinery which is already on board, cost 400,000 Dutch florins, & the rest of the work, with the materials and construction, will amount to a similar sum, making the whole expense 800,000 florins.—It has 2 furnaces for the production of steam, and three cylinders. The power will be equal to that of 300 horse. It will consume 2,470 pounds of mineral coal per hour, or 57,600 pounds per day.
 This boat is a three decker, of very elegant accommodations, unladed she draws only ten feet, loaded she will draw 16. She is intended to facilitate the communication between Holland and the Dutch East Indies; for this journey six weeks is the estimated time, during which she will consume 2,419, 200 lbs. of coal. As soon as completed she is to be sent to England, to try her strength with the sea. She has been constructed at Rotterdam, where 4 large steam boats intended for the navigation of the Rhine are now in a state of preparation.—Courier.

The Pass.—A verdict of $5000 has been obtained in New-York city, by John A. Sturges, against Jera Wat-rbury and others, for trespass, in entering plaintiff's store, removing his property, and ruining him in his business, under pretence of securing a debt of $300.

From the Pennsylvania Gazette.
 Captain Lindsay, of the Sch. Sally Ann, arrived at this port yesterday, says the New York Journal of Commerce of Oct. 10th, is 22 days from Port au Prince, reports, that a few days previous to his sailing, one of Boyer's general and two of the principal merchants of that place were shot, for having made an attempt on the life of the President.

Philadelphia Riots.—The following is copied from the U. States Gazette, of yesterday morning:— We learn with mortification for the disgrace which must accrue to our city, that a large number of persons assembled late at night, in front of the dwelling of Mr. John Sergeant, and after using most unbecoming and indecent language, with reference to that gentleman, and even of his lady, a proposition was made to proceed to violence. A gentleman who was on a visit to the family, hinted to the ringleaders of the party, that any other attacks than by words, would be met with suitable resistance. This had the desired effect, and the assemblage separated or withdrew. These violences, and others connected with the night, are much to be deplored—not more with reference to the disgust which they cause neighborhoods and families, and the discredit which they bring upon the community, than in their ulterior operations upon the general credit of our institutions.
 The house of the Editor of the Democratic Press, was likewise assaulted, the fastenings of the door forced, and the windows of several houses broken; and the square filled with from one to two thousand people, "howling like famished wolves." Another step, in the career of "a la lanterne" may resound here, as once it did in Paris.

 (Commercial Adv.)

A correspondent in the Massachusetts Journal notices the following coincidence of figures relative to the events of the war of the Revolution, which is truly remarkable:
 Battle of Bunker Hill, June 17, 1776; Evacuation of Boston, March 17, 1776; Surrender of Burgoyne, Oct. 17, 1777; Federal Constitution adopted by the Convention at the States, September 17, 1787.

SINGULAR CIRCUMSTANCE.
 During the passage from Iliga to Leitch, of the brig Harmony, Mack, and while becalmed off the Scots Reef, on Saturday 22d Aug. a young man-employed in unloading the fore-top-mast stay-sail happened to drop his knife overboard, the weather being good and a stambly of the fishy tribe sporting about the vessel, the lines were thrown out, and an excellent take of fish obtained and among them a large cod in the belly of which, when gutting it preparatory to its being cooked for dinner, the identical knife was found, and restored to its owner, four hours only having elapsed from the time of its having fallen overboard.—Edinburgh Observer.

From the Norfolk Beacon.
A Band of Robbers.—A gentleman residing upon Broad Creek, in this county, about three miles from town, having a few days since, given an information to Captain J. N. Gibson, inspector of this borough, that a number of runaway Negroes were concealed in a covert in the woods of that neighborhood, whence they sallied forth during the night, and committed depredations upon the cornfields, pasturages, hog-pens, &c. of the farmers in the vicinity, he determined to explore their haunts and bring them to justice. Accordingly, on Wednesday morning, attended by several of our police officers, Capt. Gibson proceeded to the suspected place, and dividing his party into squads, diligently examined the recesses of the woods. The squad composed of Mr. Guy and Mr. Dem-rick, upon arriving at the extreme end of two pieces of scantling projecting out of the ground, at the top of a bank several feet above the level of the beach. Upon striking the bank with a stick, the hollowness of the sound indicated the want of solidity, and upon closer examination, and removing the leaves, they discovered a scuttle or door which evidently led to an apartment in the bank. This unexpected invasion of their retreat, aroused the tenants, who, in a boisterous tone, forbade the entrance of their unwelcome visitors, on pain of death, and of them fiercely brandishing a long knife to deter the officers from their purpose.

Mr. Guy presented his musket and threatened to fire upon the negro who had the knife, if he attempted resistance.
 The fellow then dropped the knife and seized a large piece of wood, reiterating his threats of violence if they persisted in entering. Enraptured of the number of the inmates, Mr. Guy awaited the arrival of the whole party, for whom he had made a signal. The whole of the officers having come up, surrounded the entrance of the cave and demanded the immediate surrender of the occupants. They finally, very prudently determined to give themselves up, and both (for there were then only two tenants to this subterraneous abode) were secured and conducted to the Borough jail.

Upon entering the cave, they found quite a commodious apartment, regularly excavated in the bank, and prepared for an abode of some permanence, being ceiled within, and stored with fresh and salted pork, several bushels of potatoes, and corn, some green peppers and other articles of sustenance. The apartment was also furnished with some cooking utensils and crockery ware, and two sleeping bunks.

They confessed that they had lived by pillaging the neighbours during the night, never venturing out in the day.
 Several female dresses were also found in the cave, which they confessed they had taken by force from the backs of women of colour.
