INFALLABLE REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE CHEST.—Pectoral Syrup and pate of Calve's lights, by Dr. Prentiss. Druggist and Chemist at Paris.

All the preparations intended to cure any diseases of the chest, none has obtained so brilliant a success as the Pectoral Paste above indicated.

This Paste immediately removes all irritations of the breast, facilitates expectoration, instantaneously assuages paroxysms of coughing, saves a sleeping cough. Catarrhs and inveterate colds will seldom offer danger from its influence in a word it is a most prompt and effectual remedy for acute and chronic affections of the breast and lungs, pleurisies

Be cautious not to confound Degenetais' Paste with this of Iceland Moss.

The Paste and Syrupof Calves Lights may be found of all the Druggists in New Orleans. General depot for wholesale, No 239 Royal street, whose signature is affixed to every box.

AGENCY FOR THE AMERICAN SOLID-HEADED PINS
THE subscribers are agents for the above pins. These Pins are far superior to any heretofore imported. Their points are fine as the points of needles, and the head being solid—that is, of one piece with the shank—can never slip or come off; the wire of which they are made is also very stiff and elastic. They received the highest premium—a gold medal—at the fair of the American Institute of the city of New York, in October 1841. Dealers can be supplied with the above pins at the manufacturer's prices.

CONTINUES to relieve those who must consent To endure Unmoved the most excruciating pain. Since the year 1810 The period at which it was discovered that the removal of the nerve of the tooth was the only means of relief, and the only sure method of preventing the future decay of the tooth, Dr. Alexander Sullivan has been constantly engaged in the operation, and since that time has never had occasion to perform it more than once on the same tooth. Many persons have had the nerve removed by inexperienced persons, and have suffered more pain than if the operation had not been performed. Dr. Sullivan
