Mr. I'an Buren's namination -- The editor of the Baltimove Republican has received information from Weshington, that the nomination of Mr. Van Senate on the 25th ultimo. The vote, it was ruthe casting vote of the Vice President.

Missing Vessel .- The brig Corsair, of Charleston, John Emery, of Kennebunk, master, sailed from New Orleans Sept. 27th, for New York, and has not since been heard from.

From the columns of the Enquirer we copy a letter from Vera Cruz, containing an account of Gen. which had been conveyed to this city by the chan- sold at 14d, and 25 kegs lard at 10d.

In consequence of the late destructive fire at St. Thomas, all the necessaries of life, and other merchandise, have risen incommensurably in value.that it is believed, that the stock of two commercial houses only has escaped the general wreck.

The Ohio.-We learn from the Pittsburgh Gazette of the 21st ultimo, that the ice broke up in the Alleghany and filled the Ohio with the drifting cakes. The river is high, and the navigation on he Monongahela, to Brownsville, is open and uninterrupted It was expected that the Ohio, in the course of a few days, would be sufficiently clear of ice to allow the recommencement of navigation.

The Cholera. - We have received a slip from the val, on Wednesstay, at the Lazaretto of Boston, of the brig Curlew, from Smyrna, bringing intelligence of the frightful ravages of the cholera in Smyrna and on the confines of Europe and Africa.

Custom-House Revenues .- The amount of revenues, which have accrued to the public coffers, for custom-house duties at N. York, for the year 1831, Moore, Esqr. lady and three children, and Miss is upwards of twenty millions of Dollars'—Ma Margaret E. Hathaway, all of whom fled from
