E. W. B. We have been informed that the Spanish troops will finally be allowed to take possession of the Spanish forts (the Gulf of Taranto) on the plantation of Dr. J. B. B. Johnson. These forts are silvery sugar and distillery houses, and are surrounded by several affixed by bay windows, and are known to the officers of the Spanish army that a large portion of the materials are no longer wanted, and can be sold to other persons. The troops will probably arrive in two days.

In the field, Major Van Buren has been appointed to command the forces of the various regiments. TheExamples of the Conquest of the Mexican Revolution.

MEXICO.-The Mexican Revolution is in progress. The President has issued a proclamation, declaring that all persons who shall aid in the overthrow of the government shall be subject to punishment. The revolution has spread from the southern states to the central and northern provinces. The President has called upon the people to support the government. The revolution is gaining strength, and the President has ordered the troops to march southward.

NEW ORLEANS.-July 20.

The public is fully informed that the Cuban War has been declared. The President has ordered the troops to march southward to the Spanish forts. The war has spread from the southern states to the central and northern provinces. The President has called upon the people to support the government. The revolution is gaining strength, and the President has ordered the troops to march southward.

The public is fully informed that the Cuban War has been declared. The President has ordered the troops to march southward to the Spanish forts. The war has spread from the southern states to the central and northern provinces. The President has called upon the people to support the government. The revolution is gaining strength, and the President has ordered the troops to march southward.

The public is fully informed that the Cuban War has been declared. The President has ordered the troops to march southward to the Spanish forts. The war has spread from the southern states to the central and northern provinces. The President has called upon the people to support the government. The revolution is gaining strength, and the President has ordered the troops to march southward.

The public is fully informed that the Cuban War has been declared. The President has ordered the troops to march southward to the Spanish forts. The war has spread from the southern states to the central and northern provinces. The President has called upon the people to support the government. The revolution is gaining strength, and the President has ordered the troops to march southward.

The public is fully informed that the Cuban War has been declared. The President has ordered the troops to march southward to the Spanish forts. The war has spread from the southern states to the central and northern provinces. The President has called upon the people to support the government. The revolution is gaining strength, and the President has ordered the troops to march southward.

The public is fully informed that the Cuban War has been declared. The President has ordered the troops to march southward to the Spanish forts. The war has spread from the southern states to the central and northern provinces. The President has called upon the people to support the government. The revolution is gaining strength, and the President has ordered the troops to march southward.

The public is fully informed that the Cuban War has been declared. The President has ordered the troops to march southward to the Spanish forts. The war has spread from the southern states to the central and northern provinces. The President has called upon the people to support the government. The revolution is gaining strength, and the President has ordered the troops to march southward.