MEDICAL.

SANDS' SARSAPARILLA

In Quart Bottles.

For Purifying the Blood, and Thereby Curing the Worst Forms of Chronic Diseases, such as Scrofula, Scrofulous Affections of the Liver, Kidneys, Bones, Joints, Glands, Skin, Ulcers, Tumors, Chronic Rheumatism, Mercurial Diseases, Female Complaints, Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Debility, &c., &c.

[illegible] time we have all the testimonials of the virtues of these compounds presented in their strongest form, as it appears to us that the public are now fully aware of their great power, and it is in its peculiar combination and scientific manner of its preparation, that its remarkable success in the cure of diseases depends. It acts simultaneously upon the stomach, the circulation and the bowels; and thus three processes, which are ordinarily the agents of three different kinds of medicines, are applied to at the same time, through the instrumentality of this one powerful agent, which purifies, invigorates, while it disinfects and expels from the stomach and bowels all the [illegible] matter, and thus gives to the system its natural tone and vigor. In general debility, in the secrets and neutralizes the corresponding of disease itself, and when it fails in great, it is by reason of some incurable malady or the utter exhaustion of the vital energies. The testimony of rehabilitation of the have experienced by its effects to convince incredulity itself of its real value.

Important Testimony.

OXFORD, N. C., June 9th, 1852.

Messrs. A. B. & D. Sands, Druggists, New York:

Messrs. A. B. & D. Sands, Druggists, New York: We have been agents for the sale of your Sarsaparilla for the last [illegible] years, and have sold a large quantities of it during the time to hundreds of different persons, who have all of whom have pleased with it, and expressed themselves much benefited by its use. We refer to you for the various diseases for which it was used. If more proof were necessary, we could obtain almost any number of certificates in this county and vicinity, but we have not space for them, as we sell it to the same families who have used it for the last ten years.

Yours truly, R. J. GRAHAM & CO.

CHERRY PECTORAL,

For the rapid Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

And by the ivies, upon the bark thereof shall grow all trees for music, whose leaf shall not fade and the fruit thereof shall be for meat and the leaf thereof for medicine.

Here we hope for the seek recorded long ago, and every year adds new proof to the assurance that these promises shall not fail.

As medical science discovers and designates the remedies nature has given us for cure, the disease that afflict our race will be found to disappear. Pulmonic affections, which are the most fatal of all the maladies to which we are subject, from their insidious approach, have baffled the skill of the physician, and filled the grave with victims. Science will not rest in its researches so long as [illegible] remain unconquered. Every day we give some evidence that this has been accomplished, and to publish here a few proofs, from living witnesses, of cures performed by the above remedy, is but to meet the wishes of our friends, who, personally or through our agents, are constantly asking us to furnish them with such facts. Sufferers read and judge for yourselves.

For Inflamation and Whooping Cough.

From Rev. James McCandless.

Sir—I have repeatedly used your Cherry Pectoral for Whooping Cough and Inflamation, and have no hesitation in pronouncing it a completely [illegible] remedy. My wife has been afflicted with these diseases, and the first use of the Pectoral has always afforded almost instant relief. JAMES GLOVER

We attest the truth of the above statement.

For a Consumptive Cough.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 28, 1851.

Dear Sir—For three years I have been afflicted with a Cough, so distressing that I frequently despaired of recovery, much of the time I was confined to my room, and to my chair, and my cough was so suffocate me when I laid down. Having used many remedies without much relief, at last tried the Cherry Pectoral, which, under Providence, has cured me entirely.

I am, with gratitude, yours,
JAMES McCANDLESS.

This is one of the numerous cases of Asthma which have been accredited to Cherry Pectoral.

ALBANY, N. Y. April 17, 1848.

Dr. Ayer, Lowell—Dear Sir—I have for many years been afflicted with Asthma in the worst form, so that I have been obliged to sleep in my chair for a larger part of the time, and have tried months on any end. I have had the most [illegible] medicines, to no purpose, until my physician prescribed, as a last resource, your Cherry Pectoral.

Admit it seemed to make me worse; but in less than a week I began to experience the most gratifying relief from its use; and now, in four weeks, the disease is entirely broken up, my sleep sound, and rest in the comfort, and enjoy a state of health which I had never expected again.

Commission and Forwarding Merchant.

From the Reverend Professor Emmet College, Edward Mitchell, M D., L.L. D., etc.

J. C. Ayer—Sir—I have used your Cherry Pectoral in my own family, and have recommended it to others, from its chemical constitution, that it is an admirable compound for the relief of laryngeal and bronchial difficulties. If my opinion, as an educated chemist, can be of any service, you are at liberty to use it as you think proper.

Amherst, September 12, 1849.

STABLER'S ANODYNE CHERRY EXPECTORANT

Is confidently recommended to invalids, as unsurpassed by any other preparation, for the cure of COUGHS, HOARSENESS, and other forms of Common Colds, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, CROUP and INFLAMMATION in an Early Stage, and for the RELIEF of the Patient even in Advanced Stages of that Fatal Disease.

Its Anodyne principle, while it promotes the most unobstructed expectoration, at the same time allays irritation, and thus [illegible] the cause at the same time that it cures the disease.

The valuable Medicines above named have recently been introduced, with the approval of a number of the Medical Profession, in the City of Baltimore and elsewhere, and in practice have succeeded most admirably in curing the diseases for which they are prescribed.—They are offered to the Country Practitioner, as medicines which he can rely on, and confidently depend upon, as prepared in accordance with the experience of some of the most learned and skilful Physicians, and strictly in conformity with the rules of Pharmacy, and as especially worthy his confidence, who cannot so readily as the City Physician, have his own prescriptions compounded by a practical Pharmaceutist.

Dose, 1 to 2 teaspoonfuls, to be had gratis of all who have the Medicines for sale, containing recommendations from Doctors Martin, Balwell, Addams, Payne, Handy, Love, &c.

Doct. S. E. Martin, of Baltimore, "I do not hesitate to recommend your Diarrhœa Cordial and Anodyne Cherry Expectorant." &c.

Doct. John Addison says, "It gives me much pleasure to add my testimony to that of others, in favor of the extraordinary virtues of Stabler's Diarrhœa Cordial," and of the Expectorant, "I have no hesitation in recommending it as a most valuable medicine," &c.

Doct. R. A. Payne says he has used the Diarrhœa Cordial in his practice "with the happiest effect, and think it one of the most convenient and efficient combinations ever offered to the profession."

Doct. L. D. Handy writes, "I have administered your Anodyne Expectorant, in several cases of Bronchial affection, with the most happy effect, and from a [illegible] of its admirable effects, I can with the greatest confidence recommend it to the," &c.

Doct. W. A. Love writes to us that he has administered the Expectorant to his wife, who had the Bronchitis for fourteen years, and that she is fast recovering from her long standing malady. It has in a few weeks done her more good than all the remedies she has heretofore used under able medical counsel.
