tractions from the War Department, directs that the Carondets, Moreau and Fellotty street Chardwel of the Rethodat Charch South shall be delivered to Rev. J. U. Kestae, and that all other churches be also turned over at once if claims for damages on their account be relinquished, excepting those held by colored congregations. The question of damages, where these are claimed, will be settled by arbitration, and all church property occepted by the Freedment's Bareau will be surreadered by the Freedment's Bareau will be surreadered as soon as other buildings can be precured.

The financiant and consequent the control of the co formalities—could only be deduced from the victors origin in which that body had its existence, that is, in the Constitution of 1864. How fatally this argument would recoil upon the manual to argument would recoil upon the present Legislature is obvious. Having the same paternity, it can stalm no purer blood than its predecessor, its elder but not beloved, respected, or lamented brother. In other word if the Constitution of 1864 could not confe

if the Constitution of 1854 could not confer-valid aristance on the preceding Legislature and render its sets conclusive, the same instrument can certainly do no mire for the present Legis-lature and its acts. How many mambers of this last body believe the Constitution ander which they were elected to be destitute of validity, we cannot tell; but should they be sufficiently numerous to elect Benators, a very (affarent daty would devolve apon them, namely, to break up the season, ga. pon them, namely, to break up the session, ge come to their parishes, and not play out th sorry furce of a bogus Legislature under a bogus Constitution Assuming, however, the recog-sized validity of this instrument, we entirely agree with our contemporary, the Frequenc which says, in regard to the question of super seding the Senators elect by the preceding Gen

But should there appear reasonable greateds for a new election of Beastors, either than seath as involve the repulliation of the Constitution of 1864, it will not be improper, and may be quite politic, to choose a new Senatorial delegation, one truly representing the State, and let them take their chances in a contest with Meases Habn and Cauler for seats.

We can not concur in what our contemporary says of the "meason to reput duty" of one Leeis.
