TRANSMITS DISEASE
That Mosquito Carrying Yellow Fever is in Established Fort.

The yellow fever epidemic of the American public health association was featured in the news of the day. The disease, transmitted by mosquitoes, was a threat to the lives of many in the affected areas. The story also mentioned the presence of the mosquito carrying yellow fever in an established fort, indicating the spread of the disease to new locations.

DOCTAETS OF FASHION.
Wrest Dot Experts and Directors in Large Institutes.

The article discussed the latest fashion trends, noting the importance of wrestling dots, particularly in large institutes. It highlighted how fashion experts were observing and interpreting these trends, influencing the clothing styles of the time.

A NEW PROFESSION.
Women Dot Experts and Directors in Large Institutes.

Alongside men, women were also recognized for their expertise in fashion, particularly in large institutes. The article emphasized the growing importance of women in the fashion industry and their significant contributions.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The miscellaneous section included various topics, such as an article on making tea, which focused on the methods and ingredients used to prepare tea. It also mentioned an article on making good tea, underscoring the importance of high-quality tea and proper brewing techniques.

GREAT RISE IN COMPLAINTS.

The increase in complaints was highlighted, suggesting a rise in public concern or dissatisfaction. The article did not specify the nature of the complaints, leaving room for interpretation.

THE BEGINNINGS OF STICKY FINGERS.

This section hinted at the origins of sticky fingers, possibly alluding to issues of hygiene or cleanliness. The term "sticky fingers" often referred to a lack of cleanliness or meticulousness, suggesting a challenge in maintaining personal hygiene.

A SMALL SURVEY OF THE BEGINNINGS OF STICKY FINGERS.

The survey mentioned was likely aimed at understanding the causes or factors contributing to sticky fingers. It could have involved various methods to assess and address the issue.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The miscellaneous section included a discussion on the use of lipsticks, perhaps focusing on the variety and application of these cosmetic products. It might have also touched on other personal care items.

TEA.

Tea was discussed in detail, covering its various aspects, such as the quality, brewing methods, and health benefits. This section aimed to provide comprehensive insights into tea, making it accessible to a broader audience.

TEA.

Incorporating various extracts of tea, the section likely covered the nutritional and medicinal properties of tea, its cultural significance, and its role in different societies. It could have also provided recipes or tips for tea enthusiasts.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The miscellaneous section included a note on the use of lipsticks, suggesting a focus on personal care and beauty. It might have also covered other topics, such as fashion, health, or other lifestyle aspects.

TEA.

The section on tea continued, elaborating on its cultural significance, health benefits, and various types available. It aimed to provide a holistic view of tea, appealing to those interested in its diverse aspects.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

This part included an article on the use of lipsticks, possibly focusing on their application, benefits, and different formulas. It might have also touched on other aspects of personal care.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The miscellaneous section included a piece on the use of lipsticks, highlighting their role in enhancing personal appearance. It could have also covered other topics, such as fashion, health, or lifestyle.

WILL HAD HIS MONEY.

The story mentioned a character named Will who had his money taken from him. The article likely explored the circumstances or events leading to this outcome, providing insights into the story's plot or context.

L'ABEILLE DE LA NOUVELLE-ORLEANS - VENDREDI, 23 JANVIER 1923