WILD ANIMALS AND CATNIP

Jim and George, the two men who discovered the iron mine, are planning to take a trip to the West. They are going to spend three weeks in the mountains and then come down to New York City to see the ballet. They are both very interested in nature and have been working on a book about wild flowers and birds. They have collected several hundred specimens and have made many drawings of the various species. They are planning to publish a book on the subject, which they hope will be a valuable contribution to the study of natural history.
