Child poverty was at its lowest level 40 years ago (14.0%). After dropping 27 percent between 1992 and 2000, the children poverty rate increased by 28 percent between 2000 and 2009.

Black and Hispanic children have experienced significantly higher rates of poverty since race data was first collected.

* Persons of Hispanic origin can be of any race.