The message of Governor McDowzil. is a long. claborate and well written document. It alludes to many topics of paramount importance to the Biate, but to which we can hardy afford space to allude.

The temporary debt of the State amounting to space to the state of the temporary debt of the State amounting to encore the state of the state of the ordinary wants of the Government.

The subjects of Edenciaisen and Inserval Improvements occupy a large space in the mossage. The Governor refers with great feeling to the homiliating fact that in the mother of the States, the contonue in number of 180,000 persons of a suitable age to be taught, appear to be utterly destinate of the bissimps of instruction, and its dissentiation, and its common of electroite, and its dissentiation of electroite, and its dissentiation of electroite, and its dissentiations and the state of the bissimps of instruction, and its dissentiation manner all bissentiation of electroite, and its dissentiation and the state of the bissimps of instruction, and its dissentiation manner all bissentiation and the state of the bissimps of manny wise and liberal suggestions, for the promotion of electroite, and its dissentiation and the state of the bissimps of instruction, and its dissentiation manner all bissentiation and the state of the state of the bissimps of the dissentiation of electroite, and its dissentiation and the state of the bissimps of manny wise and liberal suggestions, for the promotion of electroite, and its dissentiation and the state of the bissimps of manners all bissentiation and the state of the bissimps of the state of the bissimp
