NOTICE TO Politicians and Hunters.

THIS Subscriber, purchaser of the Long Island Fish and Game Company, and other persons, trading, selling, or carrying on the business of the same, to the end that they may be known as such, will be prepared every day, in the offices of Harbor-House, No. 19, Jackson Street, where different licensees are to be found, in the above-mentioned premises, at the rate of $2 per day, for a license to all persons desiring to purchase or sell the same for the use of the city, for the cause of the sale of the articles of commerce, for other purposes for which the same is intended, on the 2nd of April, 1862.

The company asks those who may possess all the fish of their neighbors, to have their goods brought to this city, that they will purchase these goods, and also those who will furnish them with a fisherman.

The company also asks those who may possess all the fish of their neighbors, to have their goods brought to this city, that they will purchase these goods, and also those who will furnish them with a fisherman.

The company also asks those who may possess all the fish of their neighbors, to have their goods brought to this city, that they will purchase these goods, and also those who will furnish them with a fisherman.